Nelson, 2019-07-18 First published in 1999 the ideas and practices involved in early medieval royal family politics are the central theme of this collection of papers by Janet L Nelson She first examines King Alfred of Wessex 871 99 in the context of Anglo Saxon conditions and in comparison with his Carolingian contemporaries When tension and conflict within the royal family are highlighted she argues that Alfred s talents and political thought emerge the more impressively A second group of papers deals with the reign of Charles the Bald 840 77 his patronage of learning and his interest in Spanish martyrs are set in political context while contemporary historiography is considered as a form of counsel and critique The third section reflects Nelson s growing interest in the political importance and gendered roles of royal women Consecration rites are analysed as ritual expressions and factors in the shaping of the queenship while two final papers also examine the making and unmaking of Frankish kings and princes The Cambridge History of German Literature Helen Watanabe-O'Kelly, 2000-06-12 This is the first book to describe German literary history up to the unification of Germany in 1990 It takes a fresh look at the main authors and movements and also asks what Germans in a given period were actually reading and writing what they would have seen at the local theatre or found in the local lending library it includes for
