Mandich, Sergio Gonzalez Sanchez, Giacomo Savani, Eleonora Zampieri, Thomas J. Derrick, 2016-05-16 The 2015 TRAC proceedings feature a selection of 14 papers summing up some of the key sessions presented at the conference held at the University of Leicester in March 2015 which drew over 180 delegates of 17 nationalities from a variety of universities museums and research institutions in the UK Europe and North America As this conference marked the 25th anniversary of TRAC the volume opens with a preface commemorating the last 25 years with an eye toward the future direction of both conference and community The proceedings begin with Dr Andrew Gardner's keynote paper on the topic of Debating Roman Imperialism Critique Construct Repeat This is followed by an array of papers with topics ranging in geographic scope and period from small finds in early Roman Britain to bathing practices Late Antique North Africa and from the investigation of deviant burials to the application of urban scaling theory in Roman contexts Because of this diversity the volume is not broken into specific sections however papers with similar themes are grouped accordingly allowing the text to flow and be read as a whole The range of contributing authors is also of note as papers were submitted by PhD students post doctoral researchers and university faculty all helping to make the 25th anniversary of this series one that continues to emphasise and reflect the aims of TRAC both as a conference and as a conduit for exploring more theory driven approaches to the Roman past Il Giro di Boa giulio credazzi, Landscapes and the Augustan Revolution Sergio España-Chamorro, María del Carmen Moreno Escobar, 2025-07-09 This book centres on the transformation of landscapes focusing on the Western Mediterranean during the end of the Roman Republic and the Early Roman Empire This volume brings together diverse contributions that utilise both theoretical and practical approaches from landscape studies and archaeology to examine the transitions to the Empire in the provincial landscapes of the western Roman Empire Focusing on wider processes of change and continuity identified through diverse approaches e.g. settlement patterns mobility and communication and military expansion and methods e.g. spatial analysis remote sensing and GIS the contributions highlight the profound socio economic political and environmental factors whose interplay shaped the region In doing so the book underscores the agency of local communities in shaping their landscapes and their varied responses to Imperial policies thus generating new insights into the processes of social and political change brought about by Augustan reforms and how these were implemented and experienced at the local level This book will be of interest to students and researchers of archaeology and ancient history particularly those focused on Roman and landscape archaeology
