ICSSD 2020 Muhammad Nur Sa'ban,Benni Setiawan,Danu Eko Agustinova,Sutanto Trijuni Putro,Robbi Rahim,2020-11-04 The theme of the conference is Reconstructing Morals Education and Social Sciences for Achieving Sustainable Development Goals This theme was formulated due to several considerations First the symptoms of moral decline that have the potential to destroy the nation Morals guide humanity towards truth and civilization The phenomenon of the dehumanization process in the industrial era that pushed people to be part of abstract societies tends to ignore humanity The education process as a humanitarian system is increasingly marginalized especially during discussions about the industrial revolution 4 0 and Society 5 0 The conference placed six sub themes for speakers and participants to share ideas namely Social Sciences and Laws History and Cultural Studies Interdisciplinary Studies Morals and Humanities Policy Politics and Communication Education The committee has received 195 abstracts from prospective speakers However there are only 80 abstracts that are eligible to be presented at this conference

Work in the Digital Age Max Neufeind,Jacqueline O'Reilly,Florian Ranft,2018-06-01 Shining a light on the very different experiences of work in the digital age this book provides a unique contribution to the reform discussion on the consequences of the fourth industrial revolution Drawing on a wide range of international expertise contributors examine important policy challenges arising from the transformation of work as a result of the introduction of digital technology at work Authors in this volume discuss the effects of automation platform business models stagnating productivity increasing regional disparities and rising levels of inequality within and between countries They consider how to unlock the vast economic and social potential of new technologies and the implications for policy reform to meet these challenges Mastering them requires developing a new inclusive narrative and progressive reform agenda Such an agenda would be economic and political and not determined universally by technology The narrative is not only about what policymakers need to do which is rather a lot It is also about reforming established organisations and institutions understanding new emerging players and supporting disaffected citizens in how the effects of these changes are going to affect their lives The authors clearly pinpoint what needs to be done to support the transition to work in the digital era

From Consumer Experience to Affective Loyalty: Challenges and Prospects in the Psychology of Consumer Behavior 3.0 María Pilar Martínez-Ruiz,Mónica Gómez-Suárez,Ana Isabel Jiménez-Zarco,Alicia Izquierdo-Yusta,2018-02-19 This research topic for Frontiers in Psychology highlights some of the more relevant changes that have conditioned consumer behavior in recent years among these the paradigm shift in marketing is worth emphasizing Today the market and the companies are implementing Marketing 4 0 This new marketing approach modifies both the business rules and the channels by changing the way to dialogue interact and relation with consumers The present Research Topic brings together 30 studies by 76 authors who analyzed the relevance of consumer behavior changes under this new paradigm using different theoretical and methodological frameworks These different papers mainly constituting original research examine a variety of sub topics including online and mobile environments value co creation internal marketing strategies and diverse industries and product markets Given this broad selection of papers we encourage readers to draw their own conclusions about the complex phenomena of consumer behavior Our hope is that these different perspectives will cover various gaps in the field and prompt discussion among the audience of Frontiers in Psychology Strategic University Management Loren Falkenberg, M. Elizabeth Cannon, 2020-11-09

Universities are being buffeted by multiple disruptive trends including increased competition for both funding and students as well as from new institutions that are nimbler and more responsive to the external environment To survive this reality university leaders must engage in effective strategic planning that cascades from the president or vice chancellor's office to individual faculty and staff Outcomes of an effective institutional strategy are the alignment of resource allocation with strategic goals and the facilitation of clear and transparent decision making for new program development research capacity growth and infrastructure investment With increasing expectations for university leaders to engage in strategic planning Strategic University Management Future Proofing Your Institution provides a practical framework for managing the process and delivering results This book illustrates that the inherent weaving of strategic planning and organizational culture through engaged consultation facilitates a culture of responsiveness rather than complacency Providing an in depth overview of the value strategy can create in universities it provides a framework for initiating implementing and assessing strategic planning in a university setting that will make it valuable to researchers academics university leaders and students in the fields of strategic planning organizational studies leadership and higher education management Disrupting Corporate Culture David G. White, Jr, 2020-08-17 Research in cognitive science over the last 30 years shows much of what we know about culture in the business world is based on myth wishful thinking outdated science or is just plain wrong This is why culture shaping and change programs in organizations often amount to little more than sloganeering with minimal impact on the lived experience of employees This book bridges the gap between the latest research on cognitive science and culture providing a valuable guide for change leaders CEOs and practitioners on how to sustainably work with and change this important resource It answers many of the major questions that have plagued culture work such as Why so many CEOs and management consultants preach culture change when so few culture interventions actually succeed Why CEOs persist in believing culture starts at the top when virtually no research in anthropology supports that claim Why most culture shaping approaches have no answer for how to affect culture in global companies Why culture doesn't cause us to do anything yet we persist in believing that somehow it does Why so many culture shaping projects focus on corporate values despite the fact modern science shows why changing personal values is exceedingly difficult What we are learning about culture from the last

30 years of cognitive science gives us the foundation for far more impactful and sustainable interventions than have been possible to date This book explains why showing how everyday business practices well beyond HR are key to culture change Why Because the brain s synaptic plasticity can only be altered through new sustained and widespread organizational habits and routines This groundbreaking practical guide will show you finally how to realize the full power of culture as a transformational empowering and competitive resource
