Two Sides of One River António Medeiros, 2013 Galicia the region in the northwest corner of Spain contiguous with Portugal is officially known as the Autonomous Community of Galicia. It is recognized as one of the historical nationalities making up the Spanish state as legitimized by the Spanish Constitution of 1978. Although Galicia and Portugal belong to different states there are frequent allusions to their similarities. This study compares topographic and ethnographic descriptions of Galicia and Portugal from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to understand how the integration into different states and the existence of nationalist discourses resulted in marked differences in the historical representations of these two bordering regions of the Iberian Peninsula. The author explores the role of the imagination in creating a sense over the last century and a half of the national being and becoming of these two related peoples
