Carnal Knowing Female Nakedness Religious Meaning In The Christian West:

Carnal Knowing Margaret R. Miles, 2006-09-01 When we look at Michelangelo's David we see a nakedness that expresses physical prowess self knowledge and spiritual discipline What do we see when we look at Hans Baldung's Eve the Serpent and Death or Master Francke's Martyrdom of Saint Barbara Why should those naked female images symbolize wantonness and shame How do ideas about nakedness formed at the dawn of Christianity continue to shape today's sexual values What must women do to take their bodies back This revolutionary study by Margaret R Miles formerly Bussey Professor of Historical Theology at the Harvard Divinity School and author of the acclaimed Images as Insight sifts through centuries of Christian writing and religious ritual and above all Western art to reveal the origins of our attitudes toward women's bodies and their encoded meanings Broad enough to encompass fourth century descriptions of Christian baptism and contemporary theories of representation Carnal Knowing is a brilliant startling work of scholarship whose implications extend far beyond the academy to the way we live and see Book Review Flora A. Keshgegian, 1991 Religious Imagination and the Body Paula M. Cooley, 1994-05-12 In recent years feminist scholarship has increasingly focused on the importance of the body and its representations in virtually every social cultural and intellectual context Many have argued that because women are more closely identified with their bodies they have access to privileged and different kinds of knowledge than men In this landmark new book Paula Cooley offers a different perspective on the significance of the body in the context of religious life and practice Building on the pathbreaking work of Elaine Scarry in The Body in Pain Cooley looks at a wide range of evidence from the Argentine prison narrative of Alicia Partnoy to the novels of Toni Morrison and the paintings of Frida Kahlo Drawing on current social theory and critique cognitive psychology contemporary fiction and art and women's accounts of religious experience Cooley relates the reality of sentience to the social construction of reality Beginning with an examination of the female body as a metaphor for alternative knowledge she considers the significance of physical pain and pleasure to the religious imagination and the relations between sentience sensuality and female subjectivity Cooley succeeds in bringing forward a sophisticated new understanding of the religious importance of the body at the same time laying the foundations of a feminist theory of religion Erotic Faculties Joanna Frueh, 1996-01-01 Starving for Salvation Michelle Mary Lelwica, 2002 TABLE OF CONTENTS 1 Bodies of Evidence Bodies of Knowledge Contemporary Approaches Historical Perspectives New Directions 2 The Good the True and the Beautiful Female Body Popular Icons of Womanhood and the Salvation Myth of Female Slenderness 3 Losing Their Way to Salvation Popular Rituals of Womanhood and the Saving Promises of Culture Lite 4 Universes of Meaning Worlds of Pain The Struggles of Anorexic and Bulimic Girls and Women A Different Kind of Salvation Cultivating Alternative Senses Practices and Visions Notes Selected Bibliography Index

Bibliographies are greatly expanded and updated throughout More focus on biblical books and philosophical schools their influence on early Christianity and their use by patristic writers More information about the Jewish and pagan environment of early Christianity Greatly enlarged coverage of the eastern expansion of the faith throughout Asia including persons and literature More extensive treatment of saints monasticism worship practices and modern scholars Greater emphasis on social history and more theme articles More illustrations maps and plans Additional articles on geographical regions Expanded chronological table Also includes maps

Bodies in Society Margaret R. Miles, 2008-08-01 Education is about learning to think Much of what we call thinking however is a hodge podge of repetitious self talk opinion and cutting and pasting of second hand ideas Moreover thinking in the present has often been alien to scholars who were tempted to think abstractly But life and thought belong together and require each other as Plotinus pointed out many centuries ago The object of contemplation is living and life and the two together are one Ennead 3 8 8 Presently many women and men in the academic world are thinking concretely within the context of their own lives and with acknowledged accountability to broader communities with whom they think and to whom they are answerable The essays in this volume consider Christianity as an aspect of North American culture bringing the critical tools of the academy to thinking about some of the perplexing and pressing problems of contemporary public life Three interactive and interdependent themes traverse these essays gender the effects of media culture and institutions Each of these themes has been central to Margaret Miles's work for thirty years Each understands corporeality as fundamental both to subjectivity and society Miles finds that Christianity critically appropriated provides ideas and methods for thinking concretely about life in North American society

Visualizing Women in the Middle Ages Madeline Harrison Caviness, 2001 For Caviness an awareness of historical context places pressure upon contemporary theories like that of the male gaze changing their shapes and creating even richer dialogues with the past
