Critical Academic Writing and Multilingual Students A. Suresh Canagarajah, 2002-10-14 Critical Academic Writing and Multilingual Students is a guide for writing teachers who wish to embark on a journey toward increased critical awareness of the role they play or potentially could play in the lives of their students Jacket The Handbook of Intercultural Discourse and Communication Christina Bratt Paulston, Scott F. Kiesling, Elizabeth S. Rangel, 2014-09-15 The Handbook of Intercultural Discourse and Communication Intercultural discourse and communication is emerging as an important area of research in a highly globalized and connected world where language and culture contact is frequent and cultural misunderstandings and misconceptions abound The handbook contains contributions from established scholars and up and coming researchers from a range of subfields to survey the theoretical perspectives and applied work in this burgeoning area of linguistics This timely volume features first a part that introduces the background detailing the scope and topics of the field followed by one that describes four different theoretical approaches and their basic research questions from Ethnography of Speaking and John Gumperz's Interactional Sociolinguistics to Critical Approaches and Postmodernism The third part Interactional Discourse Features describes and explains the features of talk that are frequently studied in cross cultural research such as turn taking and politeness The volume also includes a section on Interactional Discourse sites examining cross cultural communication such as Greek Turkish discourse The final part considers a variety of domains in which interaction takes place such as Translation Business Law Medicine Education and Religion Transnational Literacy Autobiographies as Translingual Writing Suresh Canagarajah, 2019-07-08 The literacy autobiography is a personal narrative reflecting on how one's experiences of spoken and written words have contributed to their ongoing relationship with language and literacy Transnational Literacy Autobiographies as Translingual Writing is a cutting edge study of this engaging genre of writing in academic and professional contexts In this state of the art collection Suresh Canagarajah brings together 11 samples of writing by students that both document their literary journeys and pinpoint the seminal works affecting their development as translingual readers and writers Integrating the narrative of the author which is written as his own literacy autobiography with a close analysis of these texts this book presents a case for the literacy autobiography as an archetypal genre that prepares writers for the conventions and processes required in other genres of writing demonstrates the serious epistemological and rhetorical implications behind the genre of literacy autobiography among migrant scholars and students effectively translates theoretical publications on language diversity for classroom purposes providing a transferable teaching approach to translingual writing analyzes the tropes of transnational writers and their craft in meshing translingual resources in their writing demonstrates how transnationalism and translingualism are interconnected guiding readers toward an understanding of codemeshing not as a cosmetic addition to texts but motivated toward resolving inescapable personal and social dilemmas Written and edited by one of the most highly regarded linguists of his generation this book is key reading for scholars and students of applied linguistics TESOL and literacy studies as well as tutors of writing and composition worldwide

Academic Writing in a Second or Foreign Language Ramona Tang, 2012-01-12 It can be a challenge writing in a language that is not your native tongue Constructing academic essays dissertations and research articles in this second or foreign language is even more challenging yet across the globe thousands of academics and students do so some out of choice some out of necessity This book looks at a major issue within the field of English for Academic Purposes EAP It focuses on the issues confronting non native English speaking academics scholars and students who face increasing pressure to write and publish in English now widely acknowledged as the academic lingua franca Questions of identity access pedagogy and empowerment naturally arise This book looks at both student and professional academic writers using qualitative text analysis quantitative questionnaire data corpus investigations and ethnographic approaches to searchingly examine issues central to the EAP field

The Cambridge Handbook of Discourse Studies Anna De Fina, Alexandra Georgakopoulou, 2020-10-15 Discourse studies the study of the ways in which language is used in texts and contexts is a fast moving and increasingly diverse field With contributions from leading and upcoming scholars from across the world and covering cutting edge research this Handbook offers an up to date survey of Discourse Studies It is organized according to perspectives and areas of engagement with each chapter providing an overview of the historical development of its topic the main current issues debates and synergies and future directions The Handbook presents new perspectives on well established themes such as narrative conversation analytic and cognitive approaches to discourse while also embracing a range of up to the minute topics from post humanism to digital surveillance recent methodological orientations such as linguistic landscapes and multimodal discourse analysis and new fields of engagement such as discourses on race religion and money
