Studio Thinking from the Start Jillian Hogan, Lois Hetland, Diane B. Jaquith, Ellen Winner, 2018 Students of all ages can learn to think like artists Studio Thinking The Real Benefits of Visual Arts Education changed the conversation about quality arts education Now this new publication shows how the eight Studio Habits of Mind and four Studio Structures can be used successfully with younger students in a range of school environments The book includes classroom examples visual artist exemplars templates for talking about works of art mini posters and more If we want our students to think if we want them to learn we must engage them in habits of the mind that cultivate their innate abilities From the Foreword by David P Nelson president MassArt Studio Thinking from the Start is a needed addition to teacher resources for improving the quality of elementary art education Olivia Gude School of the Art Institute of Chicago Starting young with studio thinking is a fabulous idea supported by this fine resource After all studio thinking thrives on art but applies to everything Resources in Education ,2001

Learning and Leading with Technology ,2000 Bringing Reggio Emilia Home Louise Boyd Cadwell,1997-09-19 Bringing Reggio Emilia Home is the first book to integrate the experiences of one American teacher on a year long internship in the preschools of Reggio with a four year adaptation effort in one American school The lively text includes many mini stories of preschool and kindergarten age children teachers and parents who embark on journeys of learning together These journeys take shape in language in drawings in tempera paint and clay in outdoor excursions and in the imaginations of both the children and adults This informative and accessible work features photographs of the children both in Italy and the United States and samples of the children s work including some in full colour During the past 10 years there has been a tremendous interest among early childhood educators and parents in the innovative approaches to teaching pioneered in the preschools of Reggio Emilia Italy This book is a must read for anyone interested in the Reggio Approach Teachers especially those in early childhood teacher educators policy makers administrators and parents will find it invaluable

Epistemic Fluency and Professional Education Lina Markauskaite, Peter Goodyear, 2016-09-21 This book by combining sociocultural material cognitive and embodied perspectives on human knowing offers a new and powerful conceptualisation of epistemic fluency a capacity that underpins knowledgeable professional action and innovation Using results from empirical studies of professional education programs the book sheds light on practical ways in which the development of epistemic fluency can be recognised and supported in higher education and in the transition to work The book provides a broader and deeper conception of epistemic fluency than previously available in the literature Epistemic fluency involves a set of capabilities that allow people to recognize and participate in different ways of knowing Such people are adept at combining different kinds of specialised and context dependent knowledge and at reconfiguring their work environment to see problems and solutions anew In practical terms the book addresses the following kinds of questions What does it take to be a productive member of a multidisciplinary team working on a complex problem What enables a person to integrate different types and fields of knowledge indeed different ways of knowing in order to make some well founded decisions and take actions in the world What personal knowledge resources are entailed in analysing a problem and describing an innovative solution such that the innovation can be shared in an organization or professional community How do people get better at these things and how can teachers in higher education help students develop these valued capacities The answers to these questions are central to a thorough understanding of what it means to become an effective knowledge worker and resourceful professional Academic Content Standards ,2004 The Art Museum as Educator Council on Museums and Education in the Visual Arts,Barbara Y.
