Candy Cigarettes Roger Bell, 2011 Literary Trails of the North Carolina Piedmont Georgann

Eubanks, 2010-10-15 Read your way across North Carolina's Piedmont in the second of a series of regional guides that bring the state's rich literary history to life for travelers and residents. Eighteen tours direct readers to sites that more than two hundred Tar Heel authors have explored in their fiction, poetry, plays, and creative nonfiction. Along the way, excerpts chosen by author Georgann Eubanks illustrate a writer's connection to a specific place or reveal intriguing local culture insights rarely found in travel guidebooks. Featured authors include O. Henry, Doris Betts, Alex Haley, Langston Hughes, Zora Neale Hurston, John Hart, Betty Smith, Edward R. Murrow, Patricia Cornwell, Carson McCullers, Maya Angelou, Lee Smith, Reynolds Price, and David Sedaris. Literary Trails is an exciting way to see anew the places that you already love and to discover new people and places you hadn't known about. The region's rich literary heritage will surprise and delight all readers.

Remembering Strawberry Fields: A Memoir Mary E. Matury Gibson, 2014-12-11 Mary E. Matury Gibson's debut memoir depicts the life of a first-generation American coming of age in a small rural town. In a world before the Beatles and the computer age, life was very different. It was a time of innocence before history would form us and affect us in ways we could have never imagined.

Memoirs from the Veil Ronald W. Lawrence, 2018-10-10 Spirit in Everyday Life. Ronald W. Lawrence began his career as a psychotherapist in 1988. Over the years, he was gifted with a patient population that openly and willingly shared their spiritual and otherworldly experiences that pierced the veil between this dimension and the next. He made notes and saved memories regarding their experiences and also remembered some of his own. Life can have a transdimensional nature. There can be more than one possibility. He noticed similar themes and subject matter and was amazed at the consistency of the narratives in a group of people who did not know one another or have interpersonal contact. His disappointment is that in psychology professions, there is very little latitude and validation for such experiences in the human population. The professions themselves mostly reflect the possibility of one answer that is usually embodied in a diagnosis. Over the years, it has become clear to Ronald that life can have a transdimensional nature. There can be more than one possibility.

Rattle Snake Lodge - Memoirs of a Seeing Woman BK Smith, 2015-07-31 MY NAME IS AMANDA FRENCH. My family name French, I believe, says it all. We the French women were born to wear elegant clothing and accessories, the finer brocades and silks, fluid and cool raw dupioni and nubby shantung, the texture that is pure sex to the hand that appreciates. All the women in my family have some sense of the future and will tell you what it holds, and even before I was sure what it was, I knew I had it, the power to see. My grandmother, a healer, could interpret the sky, predict weather patterns, upcoming anomalies, drought, that sort of thing. My sister reads hands, tiny crooked lines leading up and down, front to back, thumb to wrist, are the roads she helps to navigate. My aunt could read dreams and tell an expectant mother the sex of her unborn baby. My great grandmother could heal troublesome ailments and call out evil spirits from the sick, the overlooked, and cursed alike And her mother my great great grandmother before her was known to associate with ghosts the spirits that have passed over but not before promising to return and tell all which they did by channeling through her in different languages Her sister my great aunt could tell you the day and time of your birth and the day and time of your death Sometimes I know the future in my breast Sometimes I see the future coming out like a picture show images that seep into your head the way rainwater collects in a basement corner gathering from no place in particular More often though I see events in tea leaves little bits of myself floating to the top of a shapely Spode china cup tentatively dancing along the fragile gold leaf rim like your last memories in the few minutes before death Often as I would stare down into my tomorrow wondering if I should drink the brew or run to the sink and pour it down the drain I would often do the latter It s not that a particular vision was so frightening or alien I grew up after all with these gifted women around me conversing with entities neither you nor I could see it s just the memory of seeing trouble early in a courtship and remembering what it felt like one lone tear snaking down my face and my words all square and neat as I told him I love you but I see no future Or I did see a future and there was no happiness in it But with this man with Reed I never saw a blessed thing I never saw anything at all in the beginning If I had it would have been as shocking I m sure as seeing blood on the moon I guess it s true what they say that you never see the bus that hits you

Til the Coal Train Hauled It Away Timothy Crumrin, 2017-08-16 In 1910 West Terre Haute Indiana was the fastest growing town in the United States Its population increased by an astonishing 376 percent from the previous decade Its growth was spurred by the rich natural resources coal clay and gravel that surrounded it In essence West Terre Haute s success was built on holes in the ground When those resources were depleted a downward spiral began This book is an intimate look at the people events triumphs and tragedies of the town written by a native son But it is not just the story of this Indiana town It is representative of all the areas that relied upon a single industry or resource from the New England mill towns to the steel towns of the Rust Belt This book looks at the lives of people who took on life as it came

America's Boy Wade Rouse, 2025-05-27 A revelatory story about acceptance pride and the many ways even a seemingly prejudiced family can surprise us by the bestselling author of Magic Season The Washington Post Indie Next List Great Read Selection American Library Association s Inaugural Rainbow List Selection In this memoir writer and journalist Wade Rouse delivers a humorous and heartwarming account of his Midwestern childhood and coming of age as a gay man Born in Granby a small farm town in the southwest Missouri Ozarks Wade was a fish out of water as long as he could remember or at least since he participated in his family s mock Miss America pageant when he was just five years old clad in his grandmother s red whore heels and his mother s black and white polka dot bikini Life didn t get easier in Wade s conservative hometown especially after his older brother died just a month after Wade graduated junior high school It was then that Wade buried his brother and his sexuality so his parents wouldn t mourn the loss of a second son Finally after years of a descent into obsessive compulsive behaviors and overeating Wade was able to come out to himself losing weight and gaining confidence until he had nothing left to hide Filled with memories of happiness and heartbreak America's Boy is both a quirky tribute to Rouse's rural Ozark family and an easily digestible homespun tale of a bygone era in Middle America Time Out Chicago A storyteller and a memoirist in the best sense of the words Reading Rouse's memoir is more like sitting with a good friend and a cold beer trading stories and remembering those things that may have been painful or tragic at the time but must now be respected for what they are Metro Weekly

Memoir Anthropological Survey of India, 1970 From Baseballs to Bombshells Art Graham, 2018-04-04 Growing technology and affluence rock n roll baseball and muscle cars all told through the youth and early adult years of a small town Montana boy and war veteran This is a history of the glorious 50s and 60s in America It is a history also of politicians the indecency of segregation and war and the struggle for racial equality and peace A history of two great nations Intertwined is the unique history of Vietnam and the Vietnamese long struggle for independence It is a rendering also of the unique culture of Vietnam with fascinating stories of emperors within the walls of a Forbidden City Included in the book is a review of the relationship of two nations one mighty and one resistant ultimately entangled in a catastrophic war Nearly fifty nine thousand Americans lost to family friends wives and lovers More than two million Vietnamese soldiers and civilians perished in a war that could not be won
