Darwins Pharmacy Sex Plants And The Evolution Of The Noosphere In Vivo:

Darwin's Pharmacy Richard M. Doyle, 2011-10-01 Are humans unwitting partners in evolution with psychedelic plants Darwin's Pharmacy shows they are by weaving the evolutionary theory of sexual selection and the study of rhetoric together with the science and literature of psychedelic drugs Long suppressed as components of the human tool kit psychedelic plants can be usefully modeled as eloquence adjuncts that intensify a crucial component of sexual selection in humans discourse Psychedelic plants seduce us to interact with them building an ongoing interdependence rhetoric as evolutionary mechanism In doing so they engage our awareness of the noosphere or thinking stratum of the earth The realization that the human organism is part of an interconnected ecosystem is an apprehension of immanence that could ultimately benefit the planet and its inhabitants To explore the rhetoric of the psychedelic experience and its significance to evolution Doyle takes his readers on an epic journey through the writings of William Burroughs and Kary Mullis the work of ethnobotanists and anthropologists and anonymous trip reports The results offer surprising insights into evolutionary theory the war on drugs the internet and the nature of human consciousness itself Watch the book trailer <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xoft2cAob4>

Planting the Anthropocene Jennifer Clary-Lemon, 2019-03-15 Planting the Anthropocene is a rhetorical look into the world of industrial tree planting in Canada that engages the themes of nature culture and environmental change Bringing together the work of material ecocriticism and critical affect studies in service of a new materialist environmental rhetoric Planting the Anthropocene forwards a frame that can be used to work through complex scenes of anthropogenic labor Using the results of interviews with seasonal Canadian tree planters Jennifer Clary-Lemon interrogates the complex and messy imbrication of nature culture through the inadequate terminology used to describe the actual circumstances of the planters work and lives and offers alternative ways to conceptualize them Although silvicultural workers do engage with the limiting rhetoric of efficiency and humanism they also make rhetorical choices that break down the nature culture divide and orient them on a continuum that blurs the boundaries between the given and the constructed the human and nonhuman Tree planting work is approached as a site of a deep seated materiality a continued re-creation of the land's disturbance rather than a simplistic form of doing good that further separates humans from landscapes Jennifer Clary-Lemon's view of nature and the Anthropocene through the lens of material rhetorical studies is thoroughly original and will be of great interest to students and scholars of rhetoric and composition especially those focused on the environment

The Different Forms of Flowers on Plants of the Same Species Charles Darwin, 2018-02-09 In The Descent of Man Darwin addresses many of the issues raised by his notorious Origin of Species finding in the traits and instincts of animals the origins of the mental abilities of humans of language of our social structures and our moral capacities he attempts to show that there is no clear dividing line between animals and humans Most importantly he accounts for what Victorians called the races of mankind by means of what he calls sexual selection This book presents a full explanation of Darwin's ideas about sexual selection including his belief that many important characteristics of human beings and animals have emerged in response to competition for mates

The Power of Movement in Plants Charles Darwin, 2012 This book is part of the TREDITION CLASSICS series The creators of this series are united by passion for literature and driven by the intention of making all public domain books available in printed format again worldwide At tredition we believe that a great book never goes out of style Several mostly non profit literature projects provide content to tredition To support their good work tredition donates a portion of the proceeds from each sold copy As a reader of a TREDITION CLASSICS book you support our mission to save many of the amazing works of world literature from oblivion The Power of Movement in Plants Charles Darwin, Sir Francis
