Das Andere Adolf Loos:

Architecture and Modernity Hilde Heynen, 2000-02-28 Bridges the gap between the history and theory of twentieth century architecture and cultural theories of modernity In this exploration of the relationship between modernity dwelling and architecture Hilde Heynen attempts to bridge the gap between the discourse of the modern movement and cultural theories of modernity On one hand she discusses architecture from the perspective of critical theory and on the other she modifies positions within critical theory by linking them with architecture She assesses architecture as a cultural field that structures daily life and that embodies major contradictions inherent in modernity arguing that architecture nonetheless has a certain capacity to adopt a critical stance vis vis modernity Besides presenting a theoretical discussion of the relation between architecture modernity and dwelling the book provides architectural students with an introduction to the discourse of critical theory The subchapters on Walter Benjamin Ernst Bloch Theodor Adorno and the Venice School Tafuri Dal Co Cacciari can be studied independently for this purpose Vienna Tag Gronberg, 2007 In Vienna at the turn of the twentieth century the question of what it meant to be modern was a heated topic of debate Focusing on interior design fashion and photography as well as on painting and architecture this study casts fresh light on the vital role of the arts in these debates The new art and literature was crucial in defining a distinctive Viennese modernity while at the same time challenging preconceptions about modern urban life Many artists and writers produced work that questioned and undermined oppositions between city and country interior spaces and panoramic views masculinity and femininity Issues of gender and the representation of the body were particularly important in establishing professional identities for some of Vienna's most prominent figures including the Secessionist painters Gustav Klimt and Carl Moll designers such as Adolf Loos and Emilie Flöge as well as the poet and feuilletonist Peter Altenberg Intellectual life in turn of the century Vienna has often been characterised as a retreat from the public sphere This book demonstrates how even in its ostensibly most private manifestations Viennese Modernism involved a highly performative set of practices aimed at an international audience

Adolf Loos Panayotis Tournikiotis, 1994 Viennese architect Adolf Loos was one of the most important pioneers of the European Modern Movement Born in 1870 he was an early opponent of the decorative trends of Art Nouveau believing instead that architecture devoid of ornament represented pure and lucid thought His rationalist design theories were put into practice in the Karntner Bar Vienna 1907 Steiner House Vienna 1920 and Villa Muller Prague 1930 Surprisingly there is no other monograph on Loos in English currently available Adolf Loos joins Adalberto Libera and Albert Kahn in Princeton Architectural Press's historical monographs series and presents this great modernist's complete works through numerous illustrations The Viennese Café and Fin-de-Siècle Culture Charlotte Ashby, Tag Gronberg, Simon Shaw-Miller, 2013-01-01 The Viennese café was a key site of urban modernity around 1900 In the rapidly growing city it functioned simultaneously as home and workplace affording opportunities for both leisure and intellectual exchange This volume explores the nature and function of the coffeehouse in the social cultural and political world of fin de siècle Vienna Just as the café served as a creative meeting place within the city so this volume initiates conversations between different disciplines focusing on Vienna at the beginning of the twentieth century Contributions are drawn from the fields of social and cultural history literary studies Jewish studies and art and architectural and design history A fresh perspective is also provided by a selection of comparative articles exploring coffeehouse culture elsewhere in Eastern Europe "Textiles, Fashion, and Design Reform in Austria-Hungary Before the First World War" Rebecca Houze, 2017-07-05 Filling a critical gap in Vienna 1900 studies this book offers a new reading of fin de siècle culture in the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy by looking at the unusual and widespread preoccupation with embroidery fabrics clothing and fashion both literally and metaphorically The author resurrects lesser known critics practitioners and curators from obscurity while also discussing the textile interests of better known figures notably Gottfried Semper and Alois Riegl Spanning the 50 year life of the Dual Monarchy this study uncovers new territory in the history of art history insists on the crucial place of women within modernism and broadens the cultural history of Habsburg Central Europe by revealing the complex relationships among art history women and Austria-Hungary Rebecca Houze surveys a wide range of materials from craft and folk art to industrial design and includes overlooked sources from fashion magazines to World's Fair maps from exhibition catalogues to museum lectures from feminist journals to ethnographic collections Restoring women to their place at the intersection of intellectual and artistic debates of the time this book weaves together discourses of the academic scientific and commercial design communities with middle class life as expressed through popular culture Modern Architecture: A Critical History (Fifth) (World of Art) Kenneth Frampton, 2020-09-08 An extensively revised and updated edition of a bestselling classic on modern architecture and its origins by Kenneth Frampton Kenneth Frampton's highly acclaimed survey of modern architecture and its origins has been a classic since it first appeared in 1980 Starting with the cultural developments since 1750 that drove the modern movement moving through the creation of modern architecture and exploring the effects of globalization and the phenomenon of international celebrity architects this book is the definitive history of modern architecture For this extensively revised and updated fifth edition of Modern Architecture Frampton added new chapters exploring the ongoing modernist tradition in architecture while also examining the varied responses to the urgent need to build more sustainably and create structures that will withstand changing climates This new edition features completely redesigned interiors and an updated and expanded bibliography making this volume more indispensable than ever Towards a Dialogical History of Modern Architecture Jorge Francisco Liernur, 2024-07-15 The book challenges three perspectives on the modern architectural canon explanations that disregard impacts and effects beyond the North Atlantic monologic superficial modifications that simply add Other figures to the canon and views that reject the canon itself Instead it recognizes the canon's significance in comprehending architecture while seeking to uncover its presumed Western-centric integrity through a shift from a monological to a dialogical approach This approach integrates concepts of identity and Otherness as dialectically articulated and mutually interrelated In essence the book's main thesis contends that the canon's historiographic construction overlooked the existence of Otherness specifically neglecting the world beyond the North Atlantic nucleus of the West By examining a global context to comprehend the canon formation the book proposes a more accurate understanding of the history of modern architecture Recognizing that this task cannot emanate from a single hegemonic center it presents the prospect of a coral type architectural history This narrative should and could encompass voices from diverse cultures to explore the particular circumstances of the world intertwined with each piece or figure transiently integrated into that canon As a result the ideal readers of this book position themselves within multiple settings keen on engaging in a critical global conversation about modern architectural discourse It will be of interest to researchers and students of architecture architectural history and cultural studies

How Architecture Learned to Speculate Mona Mahall, Asli Serbest, 2009 For the first time the speculative in architecture becomes a topic of critical research It is investigated not as idealistic but as strategic acting within endless modernity This modernity implies that speculation as strategic acting is not only applied to economic but also to political and aesthetic values Values become mobile valuations become a play with highs and lows authors architects become winners or losers and culture becomes fashion Includes projects by NL Architects MVRDV Aristide Antonas FAT Ralf Schreiber Pascual Sisto Ant Farm Caspar Stracke OMA JODI Kevin Bauman and others From publisher's website

Fashioning Vienna Janet Stewart, 2013-06-17 This book seeks to extend our understanding of Adolf Loos and his role in the struggle to define the nature of modernity in Vienna at the turn of the nineteenth century

Race and Modern Architecture Irene Cheng, Charles L. Davis II, Mabel O. Wilson, 2020-05-26 Although race a concept of human difference that establishes hierarchies of power and domination has played a critical role in the development of modern architectural discourse and practice since the Enlightenment its influence on the discipline remains largely underexplored This volume offers a welcome and long awaited intervention for the field by shining a spotlight on constructions of race and their impact on architecture and theory in Europe and North America and across various global contexts since the eighteenth century Challenging us to write race back into architectural history contributors confront how racial thinking has intimately shaped some of the key concepts of modern architecture and culture over time including freedom revolution character national and indigenous style progress hybridity climate representation and radicalism By analyzing how architecture has intersected with histories of slavery colonialism and inequality from eighteenth century neoclassical governmental buildings to present day housing projects for immigrants Race and Modern Architecture challenges complicates and revises the standard association of modern architecture with a universal project of emancipation and progress
