Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports ,1990 Popular Photography ,1996-07 Fairy Tales and International Relations Kathryn Starnes,2016-12-08 This book offers a critical engagement with contemporary IR textbooks via a novel folklorist approach Two parts of the folklorist approach are developed addressing story structures via resemblances to two fairy tales and engaging with the role of authors via framing gestures The book not only looks at how the idea of social science may persist in textbooks as many assumptions about what it means to study IR but also at how these assumptions are written into the defining stories textbooks tell and the possibilities for re negotiating these stories and the boundaries of the discipline This book will specifically engage with how the stories in textbooks constrain how it is possible to define IR through its reproduction as a social science discipline In the first part story structures are explored via Donkeyskin and Bluebeard stories which the book argues resemble some structures in textbooks that define how it is permissible to tell stories about IR In the second part the role of authors is explored via their framing gestures within a text drawing on a number of fairy tales By approaching the stories in textbooks alongside fairy tales Starnes reflects back onto IR the disciplining practices in the stories textbooks tell by rendering them unfamiliar Aiming to spark a critical conversation about the role of textbooks in defining the boundaries of what counts as IR and by extension the boundaries of the IR canon this book is of great interest to students and scholars of international relations Resources in Education ,1999

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
