Herstories on Screen Kathleen Cummins, 2020-05-19 From the late 1970s into the early 1990s a generation of female filmmakers took aim at their home countries popular myths of the frontier Deeply influenced by second wave feminism and supported by hard won access to governmental and institutional funding and training their trailblazing films challenged traditionally male genres like the Western Instead of reinforcing the myths of nationhood often portrayed in such films invariably featuring a lone white male hero pitted against the savage and uncivilized native terrain these filmmakers constructed counternarratives centering on women and marginalized communities In place of rugged cowboys violently removing indigenous peoples to make the frontier safe for their virtuous wives and daughters these filmmakers told the stories of colonial and postcolonial societies from a female and or subaltern point of view Herstories on Screen is a transnational study of feature narrative films from Australia Canada the United States and New Zealand Aotearoa that deconstruct settler colonial myths Kathleen Cummins offers in depth readings of ten works by a diverse range of women filmmakers including Jane Campion Julie Dash Merata Mita Tracey Moffatt and Anne Wheeler She reveals how they skillfully deploy genre tropes and popular storytelling conventions in order to critique master narratives of feminine domesticity and purity and depict women and subaltern people performing acts of agency and resistance Cummins details the ways in which second wave feminist theory and aesthetics informed these filmmakers efforts to debunk idealized Anglo Saxon femininity and motherhood and lay bare gendered and sexual violence and colonial oppression Cinema Studies: The Key

Patrick Keating, 2024-07-12 More than any other set of films from the classical era the Hollywood film noir is known for its lighting the cast shadows the blinking street signs the eyes sparkling in the darkness Each effect is rich in symbolism evoking a world of danger and doppelgangers But what happens if we set aside the symbolism This book offers a new account of film noir lighting grounded in a larger theory of Hollywood cinematography as emotionally engaging storytelling Above all noir lighting is dynamic switching from darkness to brightness and back again as characters change locations shift and fates unfold Richly illustrated Film Noir and the Arts of Lighting features in depth analyses of eleven classic movies The Asphalt Jungle Sorry Wrong Number Odds against Tomorrow The Letter I Wake Up Screaming Phantom Lady Strangers on a Train Sweet Smell of Success Gaslight Secret beyond the Door and Touch of Evil The Bookman ,1922 Hollywood Lighting from the Silent Era to Film Noir Patrick Keating, 2009-12-15 Lighting performs essential functions in Hollywood films enhancing the glamour clarifying the action and intensifying the mood Examining every facet of this understated art form from the glowing backlights of the silent period to the shaded alleys of film noir Patrick Keating affirms the role of Hollywood lighting as a distinct compositional force Closely analyzing Girl Shy 1924 Anna Karenina 1935 Only Angels Have Wings 1939 and T Men 1947 along with other brilliant classics Keating describes the unique problems posed by these films and the innovative ways cinematographers handled the challenge Once dismissed as crank turning laborers these early cinematographers became skillful professional artists by carefully balancing the competing demands of story studio and star Enhanced by more than one hundred illustrations this volume counters the notion that style took a backseat to storytelling in Hollywood film proving that the lighting practices of the studio era were anything but neutral uniform and invisible Cinematographers were masters of multifunctionality and negotiation honing their craft to achieve not only realistic fantasy but also pictorial artistry Yesterday's Faces Robert Sampson, 1983 In this fifth volume of the Yesterday's Faces series Robert Sampson has selected a host of series characters who adventured throughout the world in the 1903 1930 pulps Sparkling brightly among these characters are Terence O'Rourke Captain Blood and the ferocious Hurricane Williams More characters include Peter the Brazen in China Sanders of the River in Africa and much much more The Spectator ,1837 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art
