Das Erlebnis Dichtung Wilhelm Dilthey:

A History of Poetics Sandra Richter, 2010-02-23 Since the 1990s following the end of postmodernism literary theory has lost much of its dynamics This book aims at revitalising literary theory exploring two of its historical bases German poetics and aesthetics Beginning in the 1770s and ending in the 1950s the book examines nearly 200 years of this history thereby providing the reader with a first history of poetics as well as with bibliographies of the subject Particular attention is paid to the aesthetics and poetics of popular philosophy of the Hegel school empirical and psychological tendencies in the field since the 1860s the first steps towards a plurality of methods 1890 1930 theoretical confrontations during the Nazi period as well as the rise of formalist and anthropological approaches from the 1930s onwards All approaches are evaluated regarding their relevance for academia as well as for the general history of education If possible international references and contexts of the relevant theories are taken into account In sum the analysis not only shows how differentiated historical accounts in the field were but also reflects how current literary theory could move forward through the rediscovery of sunken ideas Goethe's Concept of the Daemonic Angus James Nicholls, 2006 The first book to examine Goethe's writings on the daemonic in relation to both Classical philosophy and German Idealism For Plato the daemonic is a sensibility that brings individuals into contact with divine knowledge Socrates was also inspired by a divine voice known as his daimonion Goethe was introduced to this ancient concept by Hamann and Herder who associated it with the aesthetic category of genius This book shows how the young Goethe depicted the idea of daemonic genius in works of the Storm and Stress period before exploring the daemonic in a series of later poetic and autobiographical works Reading Goethe's works on the daemonic through theorists such as Lukács Benjamin Gadamer Adorno and Blumenberg Nicholls contends that they contain arguments concerning reason nature and subjectivity that are central to both European Romanticism and the Enlightenment Angus Nicholls is Claussen Simon Foundation Research Lecturer in German and Comparative Literature at the Centre for Anglo German Cultural Relations in the Department of German Queen Mary University of London Goethe's ^I Wilhelm Meister's Apprenticeship^R and Philosophy Sarah V. Eldridge, Allen Speight, 2020-06-01 This volume brings an interdisciplinary approach to one of the most famous novels in the German canon but one which remains neglected in English language scholarship Goethe's Wilhelm Meister's Apprenticeship Contributors explore broad philosophical questions as they are developed in Goethe's literary text bringing new insight to both literary studies and philosophy Their essays treat individuality development and authority aesthetic formation and narrative and human contingency gender sexuality and marriage power institutions and control as philosophical problems addressed by Goethe's novel Reappraisals Peter Uwe Hohendahl, 2016-11-01 Reappraisals is a provocative account of the development of modern critical theory in Germany and the United States Focusing on the period since World War II Peter Uwe Hohendahl explores key debates on the function of critical theory illuminating the diverse positions and alliances among the participants Bringing together six essays as well as new introductory and concluding chapters Hohendahl interprets and subjects to critical scrutiny many of the central ideas of the Frankfurt School He first maps the trajectory of neomarxist criticism in Germany to the 1980s Individual chapters then focus on the work of Georg Lukacs Theodor W Adorno and Jürgen Habermas and on such issues as the politicization of German criticism after 1965 under the influence of the Frankfurt School Georg Simmel and German Culture Efraim Podoksik, 2021-07-15 Offers a penetrating contextual interpretation of German philosopher and social thinker Georg Simmel's ideas on modernity and modern civilisation The Diaries of Franz Kafka Franz Kafka, 2024-09-03 A NEW YORK TIMES BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR An essential new translation of the author's complete uncensored diaries a revelation of the idiosyncrasies and rough edges of one of the twentieth century's most influential writers An invaluable addition to Kafka's oeuvre The New York Times An essential new translation of Franz Kafka's complete uncensored diaries a revelation of the idiosyncrasies and rough edges of one of the twentieth century's most important influential and visionary writers Dating from 1909 to 1923 Franz Kafka's Diaries contains a broad array of writing including accounts of daily events assorted reflections and observations literary sketches drafts of letters records of dreams and unrevised texts of stories This volume makes available for the first time in English a comprehensive reconstruction of Kafka's handwritten diary entries and provides substantial new content restoring all the material omitted from previous publications notably names of people and undisguised details about them a number of literary writings and passages of a sexual nature some of them with homoerotic overtones By faithfully reproducing the diaries distinctive and often surprisingly unpolished writing as it appeared in Kafka's notebooks translator Ross Benjamin brings to light not only the author's use of the diaries for literary invention and unsparing self examination but also their value as a work of genius in and of themselves The Power of the Sacred Hans Joas, 2021-02-16 Disenchantment is a key term in the self understanding of modernity But what exactly does this concept mean What was its original meaning when Max Weber introduced it And can the conventional meaning or Max Weber's view really be defended given the present state of knowledge about the history of religion In The Power of the Sacred Hans Joas develops the fundamentals of a new sociological theory of religion by first reconstructing existing theories from the eighteenth century to the present Through a critical reading and reassessment of key texts in the three empirical disciplines of history psychology and sociology of religion including the works of David Hume J G Herder Friedrich Schleiermacher William James Emile Durkheim and Ernst Troeltsch Joas presents an understanding of religion that lays the groundwork for a thorough study of Max Weber's views on disenchantment After deconstructing Weber's highly ambiguous use of the concept Joas proposes an alternative to the narratives of disenchantment and secularization which have dominated debates on the topic He constructs a novel interpretation that takes into account the dynamics of ever new sacralizations their normative evaluation in the light of a universalist morality as it first emerged in the Axial Age and the dangers of the misuse of religion in connection with the formation of power Built upon the human experience of self transcendence rather than human cognition or cultural discourses The Power of the Sacred challenges both believers and non believers alike to rethink the defining characteristics of Western modernity

Georg Lukács's Philosophy of Praxis Konstantinos Kavoulakos, 2018-09-20 Georg Lukács early Marxist philosophy of the 1920s laid the foundations of Critical Theory However the evaluation of Lukács philosophical contribution has been largely determined by one sided readings of eminent theorists like Adorno Habermas Honneth or even Lukács himself This book offers a new reconstruction of Lukács early Marxist work capable of restoring its dialectical complexity by highlighting its roots in his neo Kantian pre Marxist period In his pre Marxist work Lukács sought to articulate a critique of formalism from the standpoint of a dubious mystical ethics of revolutionary praxis Consequently Lukács discovered a more coherent and realistic answer to his philosophical dilemmas in Marxism At the same time he retained his neo Kantian reservations about idealist dialectics In his reading of historical materialism he combined non idealist non systematic historical dialectics with an emphasis on conscious collective transformative praxis Reformulated in this way Lukács classical argument plays a central role within a radical Critical Theory

Anthropological Realism Stephen J. A. Ward, Clifford G. Christians, 2024-03-19 Anthropological Realism is a new theory of ethics that transforms static moral principles into global normative ideals Two prominent weaknesses in the field provide the rationale for this book First as a discipline ethics lacks a strong theoretical basis A second concern is moral parochialism Technologies are global but international perspectives rarely reflect an ethics anchored in humanity as a whole Progress in developing a moral globalism as the basis for ethics has been prevented by unproductive dualisms that lead to stalemates Ethics is typically divided into opposites such as individual and society consequentialism and deontology and local and global To deal constructively with this history of unproductive disputes the book focuses on a fundamental rivalry in philosophical ethics the opposition between realism and anti realism To move the field forward the authors create a next generation moral theory of hybrid moral realism that promotes a sustainable global ethics of humaneness and human flourishing

Doctor's Orders Robert Deam Tobin, 2001 Doctor's Orders shows how the foundational novel of the German tradition Johan Wolfgang von Goethe's Wilhelm Meister's Apprenticeship documents the rise of medicine as an institution structuring the self and society It sheds light on the Bildungsroman that this novel established provides a groundbreaking overview of the role of medicine in eighteenth century Germany and addresses larger questions concerning the relationship between medicine and literature
