My Lesbian Novel Renee Gladman, 2024-09-17 The latest in writer and visual artist Renee Gladman's ever expanding body of imaginative investigation is a sui generis novel of queerness and art making philosophy and sex The narrator of My Lesbian Novel is Renee Gladman an artist and writer who has produced the same acclaimed body of experimental art and prose as real life Renee Gladman and who is now being interviewed by an unnamed interlocutor about a project in process a seeming departure from her other works a lesbian romance Between reflections on art making and on the genre of lesbian romance though aspects of the formula drive me crazy people who write these stories understand how beautiful women are a romance novel of her own takes shape on the page written alongside the interview which sometimes skips whole years between questions so that time and aging become part of the process The result is a beautifully orchestrated dialogue between reflection and desire or clarity and confusion between the pleasures of form and the pleasures of freedom in the unspooling of sentences over time

Trauma and Recovery in the Twenty-First-Century Irish Novel Kathleen Costello-Sullivan,2018-05-07 The desire to engage and confront traumatic subjects was a facet of Irish literature for much of the twentieth century Yet just as Irish society has adopted a more direct and open approach to the past so too have Irish authors evolved in their response to and literary uses of trauma In Trauma and Recovery in the Twenty First Century Irish Novel Costello Sullivan considers the ways in which the Irish canon not only represents an ongoing awareness of trauma as a literary and cultural force but also how this representation has shifted since the end of the twentieth and beginning of the twenty first century While earlier trauma narratives center predominantly on the role of silence and the individual and or societal suffering that traumas induce twenty first century Irish narratives increasingly turn from just the recognition of traumatic experiences toward exploring and representing the process of healing and recovery both structurally and narratively Through a series of keenly observed close readings Costello Sullivan explores the work of Colm T ib n John Banville Anne Enright Emma Donohue Colum McCann and Sebastian Barry In highlighting the power of narrative to amend and address memory and trauma Costello Sullivan argues that these works reflect a movement beyond merely representing trauma toward also representing the possibility of recovery from it
