City On Fire Hong Kong Cinema:

City on Fire Lisa Odham Stokes, Michael Hoover, 1999-09-17 Uncertainty about the post handover era accelerated Hong Kong's race for economic growth and found expression in cinema's depictions of a city on fire This book reviews the directors and films that have established Hong Kong's cinema's reputation New Hong Kong Cinema Ruby Cheung, 2015-11-01 The trajectory of Hong Kong films had been drastically affected long before the city's official sovereignty transfer from the British to the Chinese in 1997 The change in course has become more visible in recent years as China has aggressively developed its national film industry and assumed the role of powerhouse in East Asia's cinematic landscape The author introduces the Cinema of Transitions to study the New Hong Kong Cinema and on and off screen life against this background Using examples from the 1980s to the present this book offers a fresh perspective on how Hong Kong related Chinese language films filmmakers audiences and the workings of film business in East Asia have become major platforms on which transitions are negotiated Hong Kong Documentary Film Ian Aitken, 2014-03-17 A comprehensive study of the lost genre of Hong Kong documentary film Rethinking Chinese Popular Culture Carlos Rojas, Eileen Chow, 2008-12-08 Through analyses of a wide range of Chinese literary and visual texts from the beginning of the twentieth century through the contemporary period the thirteen essays in this volume challenge the view that canonical and popular culture are self evident and diametrically opposed categories and instead argue that the two cultural sensibilities are inextricably bound up with one another An international line up of contributors present detailed analyses of literary works and other cultural products that have previously been neglected by scholars while also examining more familiar authors and works from provocative new angles The essays include investigations into the cultural industries and contexts that produce the canonical and popular the position of contemporary popular works at the interstices of nostalgia and amnesia and also the ways in which cultural texts are inflected with gendered and erotic sensibilities while at the same time also functioning as objects of desire in its own right As the only volume of its kind to cover the entire span of the 20th century and also to consider the interplay of popular and canonical literature in modern China with comparable rigor Rethinking Chinese Popular Culture is an important resource for students and scholars of Chinese literature and culture Film Genre Reader IV Barry Keith Grant, 2012-12-01 From reviews of the third edition Film Genre Reader III lives up to the high expectations set by its predecessors providing an accessible and relatively comprehensive look at genre studies The anthology's consideration of the advantages and challenges of genre studies as well as its inclusion of various film genres and methodological approaches presents a pedagogically useful overview Scope Since 1986 Film Genre Reader has been the standard reference and classroom text for the study of genre in film with more than 25 000 copies sold Barry Keith Grant has again revised and updated the book to reflect the most recent developments in genre study This fourth edition adds new essays on genre definition and cycles action movies science fiction and heritage films along with a comprehensive and updated bibliography The volume includes more than thirty essays by some of film's most distinguished critics and scholars of popular cinema including Charles Ramirez Berg John G Cawelti Celestino Deleyto David Desser Thomas Elsaesser Steve Neale Thomas Schatz Paul Schrader Vivian Sobchack Janet Staiger Linda Williams and Robin Wood

Cities and Cinema Barbara Mennel, 2019-05-13 The second edition of Cities and Cinema provides an updated survey of films about cities from their significance for modernity at the beginning of the twentieth century to the contemporary relationship between virtual reality and urban space The book demonstrates the importance of the filmic depiction of capitals for national cinemas in the twentieth century and analyzes the transnational transfer of cinematic images surrounding global cities in the twenty first century Cities and Cinema covers the different facets of the cinematic depiction of cities It rehearses distinct methodologies and offers a survey of the history of the cinematic city The book also deepens our understanding of tropes and narrative conventions that shape films about urban settings and that reflect the transformation of cities throughout the twentieth and twenty first centuries Beginning with a discussion of the Weimar street film it analyzes how the city film defined modernity The book outlines the sociological context and the aesthetic features of so called film noir made in 1940s Hollywood and depicting Los Angeles Paris became the site for the development of auteur cinema which repeatedly depicts characters moving through the city Tokyo took up noir to signal modern crime The volume delineates how filmic genres such as science fiction comment on the present by imagining future forms of urban living After analyzing how cinema captures the relationship between sexual identity and urban anonymity migration and urban space and marginalized ethnic and sexual identity in ghetto films the book emphasizes transnational dynamics and global cities in the twenty first century Its conclusion points to the increasing virtual mediation of cities with new media Cities and Cinema offers a historical overview of the development of films about cities and a theoretical approach to the intersection of urban studies and film studies This title is designed as a textbook primarily for second year undergraduate students in Film Media studies Urban studies as well as Geography and Planning

Transnational Film Remakes Iain Robert Smith, 2017-03-08 What happens when a film is remade in another national context How do notions of translation adaptation and localisation help us understand the cultural dynamics of these shifts and in what ways does a transnational perspective offer us a deeper understanding of film remaking Bringing together a range of international scholars Transnational Film Remakes is the first edited collection to specifically focus on the phenomenon of cross cultural remakes Using a variety of case studies from Hong Kong remakes of Japanese cinema to Bollywood remakes of Australian television this book provides an analysis of cinematic remaking that moves beyond Hollywood to address the truly global nature of this phenomenon Looking at iconic contemporary titles such as The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo and Oldboy as well as classics like La Bete Humaine and La Chienne this book interrogates the fluid and dynamic ways in which texts are adapted and reworked across national borders to provide a distinctive new model for understanding these global cultural borrowings

The Cinema of Tsui Hark Lisa Morton, 2016-04-25 Tsui Hark one of China's most famous film artists is little known outside of Asia even though he has directed produced written or acted in dozens of film some of which are considered to be classics of modern Asian cinema This work begins with a biography of the man and a look at his place in Hong Kong and world cinema his influences and his thematic obsessions Each major film of his career is then reviewed production details are provided and comments from Tsui Hark himself are given

Theorising National Cinema Valentina Vitali, Paul Willemsen, 2019-07-25 Why do we think of clusters of films as national cinema Why has the relationship between the nation and film become so widely and uncritically accepted Theorising National Cinema is a major contribution to work on national cinema by many of the leading scholars in the field It addresses the knotty and complex relationship between cinema and national identity showing that the nationality of a cinema production company and the films that it made have not always been seen as pertinent The volume begins by reviewing and rethinking the concept of national cinema in an age of globalisation and it goes on to chart the parallel developments of national film industries and the idea of a nation state in countries as diverse as Japan South Korea Russia France and Italy The issues of a national cinema for nation states of contested status with disputed borders or displaced peoples is discussed in relation to film making in Taiwan Ireland and Palestine The contributors also consider the future of national cinema in an age of trans national cultural flows exploring issues of national identity and cinema in Latin America Asia the Middle East India Africa and Europe Theorising National Cinema also includes a valuable bibliography of works on national cinema

Gender and Action Films 1980-2000 Steven Gerrard, Renée Middlemost, 2022-11-24 Gender and Action Films 1980 2000 offers insights into the intertwined concepts of gender and action and how their portrayal developed in the Action Movie genre during the final two decades of the twentieth century A necessity for academics students and lovers of film and media and those interested in gender studies
