The New York Times Index, 2009 International Express Stéphane Tonnelat, William Kornblum, 2017-04-18

Nicknamed the International Express the New York City Transit Authority 7 subway line runs through a highly diverse series of ethnic and immigrant neighborhoods in Queens People from Andean South America Central America China India Italy Korea Mexico Pakistan Poland Romania and Vietnam as well as residents of a number of gentrifying blue collar and industrial neighborhoods fill the busy streets around the stations The 7 train is a microcosm of a specifically urban New York experience in which individuals from a variety of cultures and social classes are forced to interact and get along with one another For newcomers to the city mastery of life in the subway space is a step toward assimilation into their new home In International Express the French ethnographer St phane Tonnelat and his collaborator William Kornblum a native New Yorker ride the 7 subway line to better understand the intricacies of this phenomenon They also ask a group of students with immigrant backgrounds to keep diaries of their daily rides on the 7 train What develops over time they find is a set of shared subway competences leading to a practical cosmopolitanism among riders including immigrants and their children that changes their personal values and attitudes toward others in small subtle ways This growing civility helps newcomers feel at home in an alien city and builds what the authors call a situational community in transit Yet riding the subway can be problematic especially for women and teenagers Tonnelat and Kornblum pay particular attention to gender and age relations on the 7 train Their portrait of integrated mass transit including a discussion of the relationship between urban density and diversity is invaluable for social scientists and urban planners eager to enhance the cooperative experience of city living for immigrants and ease the process of cultural transition Chase's Calendar of Events 2015 Editors of Chase's Calendar of
