Citizens Rising Independent Journalism And The Spread Of Democracy:

Citizens Rising David Hoffman, 2014 Citizens Rising David Hoffman, 2013 Handbook of Research on Promoting Global Citizenship Education Keengwe, Jared, 2022-02-18 A global citizen is an individual who believes in a public responsibility for their local community to grow and interconnect amongst the world's diverse people and things. Global citizenship education is a fast-moving process that continues to intertwine communities all over the world. As we move toward a more global world, the improvement in education, health, poverty rates, and standard of living should come with it. This global world must be a place where people are aware of what is going on and can have an impact as well. The Handbook of Research on Promoting Global Citizenship Education explores various ways to empower educators to design and implement a curriculum that incorporates global citizen education. Covering a range of topics such as global issues and academic migration, this major reference work is ideal for academicians, industry professionals, policymakers, researchers, scholars, instructors, and students.

The New Censorship Joel Simon, 2014-11-11 An examination of how the media is under fire and how to safeguard journalists and the information they seek to share with the public. Journalists are being imprisoned and killed in record numbers. Online surveillance is annihilating privacy, and the Internet can be brought under government control at any time. Joel Simon, the executive director of the Committee to Protect Journalists, warns that we can no longer assume that our global information ecosystem is stable, protected, and robust. Journalists are increasingly vulnerable to attack by authoritarian governments, militants, criminals, and terrorists who all seek to use technology, political pressure, and violence to set the global information agenda. Reporting from Pakistan, Russia, Turkey, Egypt, and Mexico among other hotspots, Simon finds journalists under threat from all sides. The result is a growing crisis in information, a shortage of the news we need to make sense of our globalized world and fight human rights abuses, manage conflict, and promote accountability. Drawing on his experience defending journalists on the front lines, he calls on global citizens, U.S. policy makers, international law advocates, and human rights groups to create a global freedom of expression agenda tied to trade, climate, and other major negotiations. He proposes ten key priorities, including combating the murder of journalists, ending censorship, and developing a global free expression charter to challenge the criminal and corrupt forces that seek to manipulate the world's news. Wise and insightful, Simon offers hope to all who care about maintaining the free flow of information in a world full of would-be censors.

Ann Cooper, Columbia Journalism School Handbook of Global Media Ethics Stephen J.A. Ward, 2021-09-02 This handbook is one of the first comprehensive research and teaching tools for the developing area of global media ethics. The advent of new media that is global in reach and impact has created the need for a journalism ethics that is global in principles and aims. For many scholars, teachers, and journalists, the existing journalism ethics, e.g., existing codes of ethics, is too parochial and national. It fails to provide adequate normative guidance for a media that is digital, global, and practiced by professional and citizen. A global media ethics is being constructed to define what responsible public journalism means for a new global media era Currently scholars write texts and codes for global media teach global media ethics analyse how global issues should be covered and gather together at conferences round tables and meetings However the field lacks an authoritative handbook that presents the views of leading thinkers on the most important issues for global media ethics This handbook is a milestone in the field and a major contribution to media ethics Rethinking Media

Development through Evaluation Jessica Noske-Turner,2017-10-26 This book argues for an overhaul of the way media assistance is evaluated and explores how new thinking about evaluation can reinforce the shifts towards better media development The pursuit of media freedom has been the bedrock of media development since its height in the 1990s Today citizen voice participation social change government responsiveness and accountability and other demand side aspects of governance are increasingly the rubric within which assistance to media development operates This volume will appeal to scholars and students of media development and communication for social change whilst simultaneously representing a deep commitment to translating theoretical concepts in action oriented ways Teaching journalism for sustainable development

Banda, Fackson (UNESCO),2015-09-21 Mediated Identities and New Journalism in the Arab World Aziz

Douai,Mohamed Ben Moussa,2016-11-14 This book looks into the role played by mediated communication particularly new and social media in shaping various forms of struggles around power identity and religion at a time when the Arab world is going through an unprecedented period of turmoil and upheaval The book provides unique and multifocal perspectives on how new forms of communication remain at the centre of historical transformations in the region The key focus of this book is not to ascertain the extent to which new communication technologies have generated the Arab spring or led to its aftermaths but instead question how we can better understand many types of articulations between communication technologies on the one hand and forms of resistance collective action and modes of expression that have contributed to the recent uprisings and continue to shape the social and political upheavals in the region on the other The book presents original perspectives and rigorous analysis by specialists and academics from around the world that will certainly enrich the debate around major issues raised by recent historical events Туруктуу өнүгүү үчүн урналистиканы окутуу
