Citizenship And Ethnic Conflict Challenging The Nation State:

Citizenship and Ethnic Conflict Haldun Gülalp, 2006-07-13 Making a new case for separating citizenship from nationality this book comparatively examines a key selection of nation states in terms of their definitions of nationality and citizenship and the ways in which the association of some with the European Union has transformed these definitions In a combination of case studies from Europe and the Middle East this book's comparative framework addresses the question of citizenship and ethnic conflict from the foundation of the nation state to the current challenges raised by globalization This edited volume examines six different countries and looks at the way that ethnic or religious identity lies at the core of the national community ultimately determining the state's definition and treatment of its citizens The selected contributors to this new volume investigate this common ambiguity in the construction of nations and look at the contrasting ways in which the issues of citizenship and identity are handled by different nation states This book will be of great interest to students and scholars studying in the areas of citizenship and the nation state ethnic conflict globalization and Middle Eastern and European Politics

Ethnic Conflicts and the Nation-State Rodolfo Stavenhagen, 2016-07-27 Using original research by a number of highly regarded specialists this book brings together comparative materials and distinct disciplinary approaches on the origins and dynamics of ethnic conflicts ethnic policies of nation states and different attempts to contain transform and resolve ethnic conflicts It is one of the results of a research project on ethnic conflicts and development undertaken by the United Nations Research Institute on Social Development Includes material on Asia and the Pacific Africa the Middle East the former socialist countries the United States and Latin America

Formation of the Turkish Nation-State, 1920-1938

Yesim Bayar, 2016-10-19 This book is a historical sociological examination of the formulation and institutionalization of Turkish nationhood during the early Republic 1920-1938 Focusing on the language education and citizenship policies advanced during the period it looks at how the Republican elite situated different ethnic linguistic and religious groups

The Settlement Issue in Turkey and the Kurds Joost Jongerden, 2007-01-01 Drawing on central issues in social sciences modernity nationalism conflict and rural development this book offers a comprehensive reading of settlement and resettlement in Turkey not only the village evacuations in Turkish Kurdistan in the 1980s and 1990s but also previous settlement and resettlement policies

Challenge to the Nation-State Christian Joppke, 1998 This volume presents the latest research by some of the world's leading figures in the fast growing area of immigration studies Relating the study of immigration to wider processes of social change the book focuses on two key areas in which nation states are being challenged by this phenomenon sovereignty and citizenship Bringing together the separate clusters of scholarship which have evolved around both of these areas Challenge to the Nation State disentangles the many contrasting views on the impact of immigration on the authority and integrity of the state Some scholars have stressed the stubborn resistance of states to relinquish territorial control the continued relevance of national citizenship traditions and the balkanizing risks of ethnically divided societies Others have argued that migrations are fostering a post national world In their view states immigration policies are increasingly constrained by global markets and an international human rights regime membership as citizenship is devalued by new forms of postnational membership for migrants and national monocultures are giving way to multicultural diversity Focusing on the issue of sovereignty in the first section and citizenship in the second this compelling new study seeks to clarify the central stakes and opposing positions in this important and complex debate

The Kurds and the Politics of Turkey Deniz Çifçi, 2019-08-08 The Kurds constitute the largest stateless nation in the world Their position in Turkey attracts attention both within the country and internationally particularly focusing on the demand for Kurdish independence Yet since the 1990s new Kurdish parties have formed within Turkey who have a variety of ideologies and demands that go beyond and differ in opinion on the question of independence Much of the present literature on the topic looks at the Kurds of Turkey as a homogenous group with unified political demands which over simplifies their position within the political backdrop of Turkey This book seeks to provide nuance and depth to the current debate on Kurdish political agency and presence in Turkey Presently the Kurds political demands can be classified into four categories democratic autonomy their cultural rights to be granted federalism territorial autonomies and independence creation of a Kurdish nation state In a broad sense these models can also be ordered into two categories territorial political models federalism and independence and non territorial political models democratic autonomy and cultural rights Considering the diversity within the Kurdish community intertwinement of tribal ethnic and national identity and differences in their language religion and ideology there are several contributing factors for the emergence of the current varied political demands of Kurds By explaining variation among the Kurds political demands through close analysis of existing at emerging parties this study challenges a deterministic approach to the Kurds which currently dominates the discourse Contesting

Citizenship in Latin America Deborah J. Yashar, 2005-03-07 Indigenous people in Latin America have mobilized in unprecedented ways demanding recognition equal protection and subnational autonomy These are remarkable developments in a region where ethnic cleavages were once universally described as weak Recently however indigenous activists and elected officials have increasingly shaped national political deliberations Deborah Yashar explains the contemporary and uneven emergence of Latin American indigenous movements addressing both why indigenous identities have become politically salient in the contemporary period and why they have translated into significant political organizations in some places and not others She argues that ethnic politics can best be explained through a comparative historical approach that analyzes three factors changing citizenship regimes social networks and political associational space Her argument provides insight into the fragility and unevenness of Latin America's third wave democracies and has broader implications for the ways in which we theorize the relationship between citizenship states identity and social action Between Islam and the State Berna Turam, 2007 Examines how shifting power dynamics between the state and Islamic forces during the 1990s have transformed both Islam and the Turkish state

Contested Ethnic Identity Chris Kostov, 2010 During the twentieth century Macedonia had a very turbulent history Essentially the region became the apple of discord among the Balkan states Ethnic identity formation among immigrants from Macedonia to Canada followed the political developments in the Balkans This book illustrates the late emergence of an ethnic Macedonian community in Toronto and the roots of the clash between the Macedonian Greek and Bulgarian ethnic communities The author tackles a number of important questions When did the Macedonian ethnic identity start in Canada What was the ethnic affiliation of the first Macedonian immigrants cultural organizations and churches in Toronto Why did they use the Bulgarian language Why do their first churches continue to be called Macedono Bulgarian churches Did all immigrants have one monolithic ethnic identity The author relies upon three different types of literature national identity development and theories Balkan history and ethnic studies of the Bulgarian Macedonian and Greek settlements of Toronto Oral interviews conducted in Toronto by the author and other researchers enhance this volume The book sheds light on a much contested subject which continues to fuel debate from Skopje Athens and Sofia to Toronto and Melbourne Publisher s description
