

The Rise and Fall of the Roman Empire

It is the year 270 BC, nearly 500 years have passed since Rome was founded by Romulus on the Palatine Hill. Over the centuries, Rome has grown and your people have become the dominant power in Italy, defeating the Etruscans in the north, and the Greeks in the south. You have just pushed Persia back to the sea and are left facing the great inland power of Carthage. The momentum towards war with the Phoenicians seems inevitable.

The Senate has vested you with the power of Censor, trusting that you can lead the Republic to an even greater future. They want you to ascend the Capitol to consult the books left by the Sabini to Tarquin. Ancient and foreboding, these stone tablets prophesy war. What is the destiny of Rome and your people?
