Crossing Cultures In The Language Classroom:

Crossing Cultures in the Language Classroom Andrea DeCapua, Ann C. Wintergerst, 2004 Crossing Cultures in the Language Classroom links theory with experiential activities that will be helpful for use in teacher training or certificate programs The goals of this book for the teacher educator are to expand cultural awareness to acquire an in depth understanding of what culture is and its relationship to language and to comprehend and implement observations of cultural similarities and differences Topics discussed in the book include culture shock nonverbal communication societal roles pragmatics A great in service workshop text or teacher training programs Crossing Cultures in the Language Classroom, Second Edition Andrea DeCapua, Ann C. Wintergerst, 2016-01-28 A MICHIGAN TEACHER TRAINING title Teachers are often in the forefront of today's cross cultural contact whether in the language classroom or in the K 12 or university college classroom but they are not always prepared to handle the various issues that can arise in terms of cross cultural communication The intent of this book is to make education in cross cultural awareness accessible to a broad range of teachers working in a variety of educational settings Crossing Cultures in the Language Classroom attempts to balance theory and practice for pre service and in service teachers in general education programs or in ESL EFL bilingual and foreign language teacher training programs as well as cross cultural awareness workshops This book is unique in that it combines theory with a wide range of experiential activities and projects designed to actively engage users in the process of understanding different aspects of cross cultural awareness The goals of the book are to help readers expand cultural awareness of one's own culture and that of others achieve a deeper understanding of what culture is and the relationship between culture and language acquire the ability to observe behaviors in order to draw conclusions based on observation rather than preconceptions understand and implement observations of cultural similarities and differences develop an attitude of tolerance toward cultural differences and move away from the single story The new edition has been thoroughly updated and includes a Suggested Projects section in each chapter This section provides opportunities for users of the text to explore in greater depth an area and topic of interest It also includes even more Critical Incidents brief descriptions of events that depict some element or elements of cultural differences miscommunication or culture clash Critical Incidents develop users ability to analyze and understand how multiple perspectives of the same situation are rooted in differing culturally influenced beliefs behaviors norms of interaction and worldviews Crossing Cultures Nakiye Avdan Boyacigiller, Richard Alan Goodman, Margaret E. Phillips, 2004-08-02 Crossing Cultures provides a bold and refreshing new resource for teachers and trainers with proven methods for developing coping strategies and problem solving skills in the cross cultural arena A comprehensive study structured to provide a framework for teaching each chapter contains a teaching module highlighting the potential difficulties dialogues and variations in cross cultural teaching Ideal for those teaching Business across borders this is a uniquely practical guide that features contributions from the leading lights of the field Teaching Chinese by

Culture and TV Drama Lingfen Zhang, 2022-04-28 This book integrates culture and authenticity into Chinese classroom practice through exploring the potential of contemporary TV drama as teaching and learning materials for intercultural Chinese language teaching and learning In addressing the four main challenges in culture teaching in Teaching Chinese as a Foreign Language TCFL this book focuses on precisely this area of pedagogical practice in Chinese as foreign language education and draws on a wide interdisciplinary base including foreign language education cultural studies and intercultural communication to explore the potential of authentic TV drama as language and culture materials for revitalising TCFL and foreign language teaching more generally It examines in detail the culturally shaped beliefs values and practices that give meaning to the action and language of the selected clips in a modern award winning Chinese TV drama This book shows a potential experiential pathway into pedagogical practices to bring contemporary culture into classrooms to engage learners with contemporary and authentic texts and to encourage inquiry focused teaching practices which in being intercultural allow for learners own interpretations of cultural messages in interaction and to recognise learners as learning to understand their own values and beliefs as they learn to explore those of other cultures
