Buttons – hello there boys and girls. I'm Buttons; I got that name because I really like buttons, chocolate buttons as you can tell. I'm a servant here in this glorious house. But all is not well. The master of the house has recently passed away and left his three children and my boss, Baroness Hardup. Money is tight and I work for a pittance, all I've got that's worth anything is this coat. It's an antique. But what can you do? There's not a lot of call these days for a bell boy. Oh here she comes the most beautiful woman in the world.

Cinderella – Oh Buttons. I'm so glad you're here. My wicked step mother is refusing to let me go and buy new clothes. She cries Buttons – But Cinders, your not as rich as you were before, we all have to tighten our buttons.

Cinderella – but my sisters have been allowed to go, it doesn't seem at all fair

Buttons – life isn't Cinders love, but we'll get through it.

Cinderella – You're a good friend, thanks for listening to me. she kisses him on the cheek

Buttons – Anytime

to audience I mean it!

Enter Ugly sisters

Ugly sister 1 – oh there you are, you little monkey, could you run along and get me a cup of tea.

Buttons – Straight away, to audience have you ever seen such a ghastly pair?

Ugly sister 2 – She wasn't talking to you, sexy boy, she was talking to the stick insect.

Cinderella – get your own tea you lazy...

Baroness Hardup – Listen precious, you'll do as you are told, times are hard and I need you to help more around the house, since your poor father passed away we have all needed to pull our weight

Buttons – some have us have got more weight than others to pull!

Baroness Hardup – You, little illegitimate urchin have done nuf all and that's about to change. From now on you will do your share of the house work and you'll do it with a smile, is that understood?

Cinderella – but mother dearest I work as hard as I can

Baroness Hardup – Silence, just run along and get the tea

Victorian Pantomime J. Davis, 2010-08-11 Featuring contributions by new and established nineteenth century theatre scholars this collection of critical essays is the first of its kind devoted solely to Victorian pantomime It takes us through the various manifestations of British pantomime in the Victorian period and its ambivalent relationship with Victorian values

The Golden Age of Pantomime Jeffrey Richards, 2014-10-23 Of all the theatrical genres most prized by the Victorians pantomime is the only one to have survived continuously into the twenty first century It remains as true today as it was in the 1830s that a visit to the pantomime constitutes the first theatrical experience of most children and now as then a successful pantomime season is the key to the financial health of most theatres Everyone went to the pantomime from Queen Victoria and the royal family to the humblest of her subjects It appealed equally to West End and East End to London and the provinces to both sexes and all ages Many Victorian luminaries were devotees of the pantomime notably among them John Ruskin Charles Dickens Lewis Carroll and W E Gladstone In this vivid and evocative account of the Victorian pantomime Jeffrey Richards examines the potent combination of slapstick spectacle and subversion that ensured the enduring popularity of the form The secret of its success he argues was its continual evolution It acted as an accurate cultural barometer of its times directly reflecting current attitudes beliefs and preoccupations and it kept up a flow of instantly recognisable topical allusions to political rows fashion fads technological triumphs wars and revolutions and society scandals Richards assesses throughout the contribution of writers producers designers and stars to the success of the pantomime in its golden age This book is as rich and appetizing as turkey mince pies and plum pudding
