Writing for College: the Eight Step Program to Writing Academic Argument Papers Using the Template

Method Rebecca Smith, 2012-04-13 Writing for College the Eight Step Program to Writing Academic Argument Papers Using the Template Method is designed to help students who have been needlessly struggling with writing for their college classes because they fail to understand how college writing differs from other types of writings. This book has two goals. One to provide you the student with a template to follow in composing your own standard academic essay and two to explain how and why you should follow the process of producing original researched academic essays when trying to prove competency in English writing in colleges and universities. You know how to write what you need are the rhetorical skills to help you write better. This book can help.

Critical Thinking Skills Stella Cottrell, 2023-03-23

The ability to demonstrate critical thinking is essential for students who seek to achieve good grades at university but it typically creates a lot of confusion and anxiety. Critical Thinking Skills provides an easy to follow step by step guide to developing analytical reasoning skills and applying them to tasks such as reading note making and writing. A complex subject is broken down into easy to understand blocks with clear explanations, good examples and plenty of activities to develop understanding at each stage. Students can use this book to critically assess other people's arguments. Recognise flawed reasoning. Evaluate the material used to support arguments. Apply critical thinking when reading, writing and making notes. Write excellent essays and reports. The 4th edition features a new section on argument mapping techniques which help readers to visualize the structures of an argument. It also contains new and updated examples that link to current affairs showing the importance of critical thinking as a lifelong skill. Written by internationally renowned author Stella Cottrell, this is an essential resource for students looking to refine their thinking, reading and writing skills.
