within twenty miles of downtown Portland Oregon less than a half hour s ride from the city Adventurers at all skill levels will be surprised by the remoteness and remarkable beauty of these easy woodland escapes Just take this pocket sized companion and slip down a hidden trail to emerge on vistas with eagles soaring overhead There are shorter walks suitable for kids like the McCarthy Creek Loop and rugged routes for the ambitious like the Fire Lane 12 loop Each hike description includes a map bus access basic conditions length and grade as well as flora fauna geology and local history Half the trails explore lesser known wooded hillsides in Forest Park Others venture farther north in the Tualatin Mountains into rarely described prime Oregon hiking country A devoted advocate for Portland s wilderness areas James D Thayer has surveyed most of the publicly accessible walking routes along the Tualatin Mountains from Forest Park to Scappoose and nearly to the Oregon coast on foot

Imagined Frontiers Carl Abbott,2015-09-10 We live near the edge whether in a settlement at the core of the Rockies a gated community tucked into the wilds of the Santa Monica Mountains a silicon culture emerging in the suburbs or in the future homesteading on a terraformed Mars In Imagined Frontiers urban historian and popular culture scholar Carl Abbott looks at the work of American artists who have used novels film television maps and occasionally even performance art to explore these frontiers the metropolitan frontier of suburban development the classic continental frontier of American settlement and the yet unrealized frontiers beyond Earth Focusing on writers and artists working during the past half century an era of global economic and social reach Abbott describes the dialogue between historians and social scientists seeking to understand these frontier places and the artists reimagining them in written and visual fictions This book offers perspectives on such well known authors as T C Boyle and John Updike and on such familiar movies and television shows as Falling Down and The Sopranos By putting The Rockford Files and the cult favorite Firefly in conversation with popular fiction writers Robert Heinlein and Stephen King and literary novelists Peter Matthiessen and Leslie Marmon Silko Abbott interweaves the disparate subjects of western history urban planning and science fiction in a single volume Abbott combines all new essays with others previously published but substantially revised to integrate western and urban history literary analysis and American studies scholarship in a uniquely compelling analysis of the frontier in popular culture

Postwestern Cultures Susan Kollin,2007-01-01 Synthesizes topics of contemporary scholarship of the American West This work examines subjects ranging from the use of frontier rhetoric in Japanese American internment camp narratives to the emergence of agricultural tourism in the New West to the application of geographer J B Jackson s theories to vernacular or abandoned western landscapes
