Cput Application Form 2015:

The Transformative Power of Language Russell H. Kaschula, H. Ekkehard Wolff, 2020-09-10 Language has played a pivotal role in societal transformation in postcolonial Africa towards the creation of globally competitive knowledge societies however so far this role has been under researched and under estimated This volume addresses this gap in the literature by bringing together a team of globally recognised scholars to explore the effect of language on African postcolonial societies and how it has contributed to achieving mental decolonisation A range of languages are explored both imported ex colonial and indigenous African and case studies from different spheres of public discourse are investigated from universities to legal settings Demonstrating that multilingualism is a resource for rather than barrier to successful transformation this book brings the intellectualisation and institutionalisation of African languages to the forefront of development discourse and provides an insightful snap shot of how current academic research public discourse political activism and social community engagement have contributed to societal transformation in South Africa

Process Engineering Renewal 1 Éric Schaer, Jean-Claude André, 2020-06-16 Process engineering emerged at the beginning of the 20th Century and has become an essential scientific discipline for the matter and energy processing industries Its success is incontrovertible with the exponential increase in techniques and innovations Rapid advances in new technologies such as artificial intelligence as well as current societal needs sustainable development climate change renewable energy the environment are developments that must be taken into account in industrial renewal Process Engineering Renewal 1 the first volume of three focuses on training demonstrating the need for innovation in order for the field to have a framework that is sustainable in a highly changeable world

Telling Stories of Pain and Hope Mary Elizabeth Lange, Ruth Teer-Tomaselli, 2024-06-07 The histories of South Africa and Ireland have been tumultuous and traumatic Both countries have experienced political repression sectarian violence and oppression that still impact the spiritual well being of people today Their parallel histories are of colonialism displacement and division and a fight for land and sovereignty Both countries have embarked on a process of healing and reconciliation yet there is an ongoing struggle for reparation and or reversal of previous injustices Recognising that museums of the 21st century have the potential to contribute to catharsis and mutual understanding this book reflects on selected museums in South Africa and Ireland that commemorate the pain of the past and the hope for the future The primary focus of the book is the way in which museum guides curators and managers share their stories and the stories of their ancestors and the stories of other people s ancestors who were caught up in the conflict

while interweaving the stories of the authors as well Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa Telling Stories

Differently Janet Condy, 2015-09-01 The aim of this book is to share a relatively loose collection of studies using digital storytelling as a pedagogical tool in Cape Peninsula University of Technology CPUT The book takes an informed social justice approach to teaching and learning at the heart of which is the exploration of DST as a practice of voice and agency Voice and agency are important in excavating and recovering subjugated identities and moving the concerns of those occupying subaltern spaces to the mainstream of teaching and learning Yet this discursive shift is not without inherent challenges Multi modal technologies are reflective of wider inequities in the so called technological divide Whilst this is a book about higher education there are important lessons for schooling On the one hand the book is a powerful demonstration of the potential of DST for enhancing learning in schools particularly in schools serving the poor and marginalised On the other hand improving teaching and learning in higher education through the creative use of technology is essential to overcome the learning challenges of those entering tertiary level institutions Library Staffing for the Future Samantha Schmehl Hines, Marcy Simons, 2015-12-09 This latest volume contains approaches from researchers around the world The chapters explore such issues as skills building and other professional development activities changing demographic profiles of staff changing modes of resource provision succession planning remote work and planning for Linked Data Knowledge-building Karl

Maton, Susan Hood, Suellen Shay, 2015-10-08 Education and knowledge have never been more important to society yet research is segmented by approach methodology or topic Legitimation Code Theory or LCT extends and integrates insights from Pierre Bourdieu and Basil Bernstein to offer a framework for research and practice that overcomes segmentalism This book shows how LCT can be used to build knowledge about education and society Comprising original papers by an international and multidisciplinary group of scholars Knowledge building offers the first primer in this fast growing approach Through case studies of major research projects Part I provides practical insights into how LCT can be used to build knowledge by enabling dialogue between theory and data in qualitative research bringing together quantitative and qualitative methodologies in mixed methods research relating theory and practice in praxis conducting interdisciplinary studies with systemic functional linguistics Part II offers a series of studies of pressing issues facing knowledge building in education and beyond encompassing diverse subject areas including physics English cultural studies music and design educational sites schooling vocational education and higher education practices of research curriculum pedagogy and assessment both education and informal learning contexts such as museums and masonic lodges Carefully sequenced and interrelated these chapters form a coherent collection that gives a unique insight into one of the most thought provoking and innovative ways of building knowledge about knowledge building in education and society to have emerged this century This book is essential reading for all serious students and scholars of education sociology and linguistics Advanced Materials for Renewable Hydrogen Production, Storage and Utilization Jianjun Liu, 2015-11-25 Hydrogen as an energy carrier is widely regarded as a potential cost effective renewable and clean energy alternative to fossil fuels in order to mitigate the energy shortage and environmental pollution that are currently being faced The rapid development of advanced materials in hydrogen production storage and utilization has opened up a new avenue for the conversion and utilization of hydrogen energy This book summarizes the current research progress in these areas and is expected to aid in the development and design of advanced materials to improve hydrogen production storage and utilization Doctoral education in context Jan Botha,Liezel Frick,Nompilo Tshuma,2025-09-29 Doctoral Education in Context Perspectives from Africa shares lived experiences and insights of doctoral supervisors from 16 different countries in Africa The book s originality lies also in the contributors profiles as practicing novice doctoral supervisors All of them graduated from the Training Course for Supervisors offered by the Centre for Research on Evaluation Science and Technology CREST at Stellenbosch University in South Africa with the support of the German Academic Exchange Service DAAD German Rectors Conference HRK through the DIES Programme The authors commitment to doctoral supervision in their particular context is shown in each chapter Many edited volumes bring together the voices of often established researchers in this book we hear first hand the voices of novice supervisors who are willing to learn and share their insights and experiences in doctoral supervision This perspective makes the unique strength and originality of the book This book is for anyone involved in the research and practice of doctoral supervision in Africa and the global context Readers and doctoral supervisors outside Africa will learn much about the challenging world of doctoral supervision in Africa minds
