The Hadhrami Diaspora in Southeast Asia Ahmed Ibrahim Abushouk, Hassan Ahmed Ibrahim, 2009 This volume originates from the proceedings of an international conference convened by the Department of History and Civilization International Islamic University Malaysia in collaboration with the Embassy of the Republic of Yemen in Kuala Lumpur from 26 to 28 August 2005 Twelve out of thirty five papers presented at the conference have been reviewed thoroughly revised and published in this volume The introduction and the twelve chapters address the question of Hadhrami identity in Southeast Asia from various perspectives and investigate the patterns of Hadhrami interaction with diverse cultures values and beliefs in the region Special attention is paid to Hadhrami local and transnational politics social stratification and integration religio social reform and journalism as well as to economic dynamism and the cosmopolitan character of the Hadhrami societies in Southeast Asia Weathering the Storm P. Boomgaard, 2021-10-01 The principal cause of the 1930s depression in Southeast Asia lay outside the region through a sharp contraction in demand for the region's major commodity exports But it had important internal causes too an oversupply of primary commodities and an increasing scarcity of new agricultural land leading to higher rents and lower wages rising indebtedness and increasing landlessness This work thoroughly analyses the pre war depression It also looks at the changes in the basic structures of the economies of Southeast Asia that were of long term importance such as the role of the state in the economy The authors also draw similarities and contrasts between the 1930s depression and the 1990s Asian crisis Contributors are Peter Boomgaard Anne Booth Pierre Brocheux Ian Brown William G Clarence Smith Daniel F Doeppers Paul H Kratoska J Thomas Lindblad Sompop Manarungsan S Nawiyanto Irene Norlund Jeroen Touwen and Willem Wolters Co published with ISEAS Singapore At Home on the World Markets Joost Jonker, Keetie Sluyterman, 2001-03-01 The Dutch economy has relied on trade for centuries During the seventeenth century the Netherlands experienced a Golden Age built largely on commercial enterprise and trade continues to be the golden link in the supply chain from producers to consumers Yet we know very little about the business of trade and the people involved in it What was the nature of their work and how did it evolve through the ages In the lavishly illustrated At Home on the World Markets Joost Jonker and Keetie Sluyterman look at mercantile dynasties such as the Trips and the Van Eeghens and companies such as the famous Dutch East Indian Company VOC and the modern trading company Hagemeyer that have been largely unstudied They describe the evolution of a unique economic sector that occupies a key position in the supply chain from producers to consumers Remaking Management Chris Smith, Brendan McSweeney, Robert Fitzgerald, 2008-05-08 Debates about the consequences for work practices posed by the rapidly growing transnationalisation of business have become increasingly central to management studies sociology political science geography and other disciplines Remaking Management brings together a range of international contributors from different sub disciplines in management to examine current theories of change or continuity of work practices in the context of fashionable claims about unstoppable globalisation or unmoveable national business systems It provides theoretical and empirical challenges to both of these explanations Rejecting an overemphasis on inevitable convergence or enduring divergence the book reveals a mix of international national and organisational level influences on workplace practice This is a rich and wide ranging resource for graduate students and academics concerned with how organisations are responding to an increasingly complex commercial environment Daar werd wat groots verricht Willem Henri Helsdingen,H.

Archipelago Martinus Nijhoff,2013-11-21 Banditry in West Java Margreet van Till,2011-01-01 Banditry was rife around Batavia modern Jakarta during the late colonial period with at least one major robbery committed every day Banditry in West Java identifies the bandits and describes their working methods and their motives which often went beyond simple self enrichment It also explores the world of the robbers victims city dwellers for whom the robbers were the antithesis of civilization convenient objects onto which respectable citizens projected their own preoccupations with sex violence and magic The colonial police force in the Dutch East Indies was reformed in the early 1920s and banditry was subsequently brought under control However the bandit tradition lived on in Javanese popular imagination and folk culture not least in tales of Si Pitung a Robin Hood figure who flourished in nineteenth century Batavia The author argues that banditry in Batavia was closely linked with the modernization process particularly the ready availability of firearms and the rise of a money economy However her findings do little to support suggestions that banditry should be seen as part of the revolutionary struggle for independence in Indonesia Banditry in West Java is a translation of Batavia bij Nacht Bloei en ondergang van het Indonesisch roverswezen in Batavia en de Ommelanden 1869 1942 Amsterdam Uitgeverij Aksant 2006
