

The background of the image is a detailed historical painting. It depicts a formal diplomatic or treaty-signing ceremony. In the foreground, several men in 19th-century attire are visible, some standing and others seated. A group of women in long dresses stands to the right. The middle ground is filled with numerous flags of various nations, including the United States flag, flying from tall poles. In the background, there are large, ornate buildings and lush green trees. The overall scene suggests a significant international event.
