Dark Designs And Visual Culture:

Dark Designs and Visual Culture Michele Wallace, 2004-12-06 A collection of writings from the 90s by the popular Black feminist scholar and journalist on film art and politics

The Black Female Body in American Literature and Art Caroline Brown, 2013-02-28 This book examines how African American writers and visual artists interweave icon and inscription in order to re present the black female body traditionally rendered alien and inarticulate within Western discursive and visual systems Brown considers how the writings of Toni Morrison Gayl Jones Paule Marshall Edwidge Danticat Jamaica Kincaid Andrea Lee Gloria Naylor and Martha Southgate are bound to such contemporary postmodern visual artists as Lorna Simpson Carrie Mae Weems Kara Walker Betye Saar and Faith Ringgold While the artists and authors rely on radically different media photos collage video and assembled objects as opposed to words and rhythm both sets of intellectual activists insist on the primacy of the black aesthetic Both assert artistic agency and cultural continuity in the face of the oppression social transformation and cultural multiplicity of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries This book examines how African American performative practices mediate the tension between the ostensibly de racialized body politic and the hyper racialized black female body reimagining the cultural and political ground that guides various articulations of American national belonging Brown shows how and why black women writers and artists matter as agents of change how and why the form and content of their works must be recognized and reconsidered in the increasingly frenzied arena of cultural production and political debate

Black is Beautiful Paul C. Taylor, 2016-03-24 Black is Beautiful identifies and explores the most significant philosophical issues that emerge from the aesthetic dimensions of black life providing a long overdue synthesis and the first extended philosophical treatment of this crucial subject The first extended philosophical treatment of an important subject that has been almost entirely neglected by philosophical aesthetics and philosophy of art Takes an important step in assembling black aesthetics as an object of philosophical study Unites two areas of scholarship for the first time philosophical aesthetics and black cultural theory dissolving the dilemma of either studying philosophy or studying black expressive culture Brings a wide range of fields into conversation with one another from visual culture studies and art history to analytic philosophy to musicology producing mutually illuminating approaches that challenge some of the basic suppositions of each Well balanced up to date and beautifully written as well as inventive and insightful Winner of The American Society of Aesthetics Outstanding Monograph Prize 2017 Ethnopornography Pete Sigal,Zeb Tortorici,Neil L. Whitehead,2019-12-13 With topics that span the sixteenth century to the present in Latin America the United States Australia the Middle East and West Africa the contributors show how ethnopornography the eroticized observation of the Other for supposedly scientific or academic purposes is fundamental to the creation of race colonialism and archival and ethnographic knowledge In Search of Belonging Jillian M Baez,2018-02-21 In Search of Belonging explores the ways Latina o audiences in general and women in particular make sense of and engage both mainstream and Spanish language media Jillian M B ez s eye opening ethnographic analysis draws on the experiences of a diverse group of Latinas in Chicago In depth interviews reveal Latinas viewing media images through a lens of citizenship These women search for nothing less than recognition and belonging through representations of Latinas in films advertising telenovelas and TV shows like Ugly Betty and Modern Family B ez s personal interactions and research merge to create a fascinating portrait one that privileges the perspectives of the women themselves as they consume media in complex unpredictable ways Innovative and informed by a wealth of new evidence In Search of Belonging answers important questions about the ways Latinas perform citizenship in today s America

Reconciling Art and Mothering RachelEpp Buller,2017-07-05 Reconciling Art and Mothering contributes a chorus of new voices to the burgeoning body of scholarship on art and the maternal and for the first time focuses exclusively on maternal representations and experiences within visual art throughout the world This innovative essay collection joins the voices of practicing artists with those of art historians acknowledging the fluidity of those categories The twenty five essays of Reconciling Art and Mothering are grouped into two sections the first written by art historians and the second by artists Art historians reflect on the work of artists addressing motherhood including Marguerite G rd Chana Orloff and Ren Cox from the early nineteenth century to the present day Contributions by contemporary artist mothers such as Gail Rebhan Denise Ferris and Myrel Chernick point to the influence of past generations of artist mothers to the inspiration found in the work of maternally minded literary and cultural theorists and to attempts to broaden definitions of maternity Working against a hegemonic construction of motherhood the contributors discuss complex and diverse feminist mothering experiences from maternal ambivalence to queer mothering to quests for self fulfillment The essays address mothering experiences around the globe with contributors hailing from North and South America Europe Asia Africa and Australia Body as Evidence Janell Hobson,2012-10-18 In Body as Evidence Janell Hobson challenges postmodernist dismissals of identity politics and the delusional belief that the Millennial era reflects a postracial and postfeminist world Hobson points to diverse examples in cultural narratives which suggest that new media rely on old ideologies in the shaping of the body politic Body as Evidence creates a theoretical mash up of prose and poetry to illuminate the ways that bodies still matter as sites of political cultural and digital resistance It does so by examining various representations from popular shows like American Idol to public figures like the Obamas to high profile cases like the Duke lacrosse rape scandal to current trends in digital culture Hobson s study also discusses the women who have fueled and retooled twenty first century media to make sense of antiracist and feminist resistance Her discussions include the electronica of Janelle Mon e M I A and Bj rk the feminist film odysseys of Wanuri Kahiu and Neloufer Pazira and the embodied resistance found simply in raising one s voice in song creating a blog wearing a veil stripping naked or planting a tree Spinning knowledge out of this information overload Hobson offers a global black feminist meditation on how our bodies mobilize destabilize and decolonize the meanings of race and gender in an increasingly digitized and globalized world

Appreciation Post Tara Ward,2024-04-30 What does an art history of Instagram look like Appreciation Post reveals how Instagram shifts long established ways of interacting with images Tara Ward argues Instagram is a structure of the visual which includes not just the process of looking but what can be seen and by whom She examines features of Instagram use including the effect of scrolling through images on a phone the skill involved in taking an Instagram worthy picture and the desires created by following influencers to explain how the constraints imposed by Instagram limit the selves that can be displayed on it The proliferation of technical knowledge especially among younger women revitalizes on Instagram the myth of the masculine genius and a corresponding reinvigoration of a masculine audience for art Ward prompts scholars of art history gender studies and media studies to attend to Instagram as a site of visual expression and social consequence Through its insightful comparative analysis and acute close reading Appreciation Post argues for art history s value in understanding the contemporary world and the visual nature of identity today

Expanding the Black Film Canon Lisa Doris Alexander,2019-08-30 If the sheer diversity of recent hits from Twelve Years a Slave and Moonlight to Get Out Black Panther and BlackkKlansman tells us anything it might be that there s no such thing as black film per se This book is especially timely then in expanding our idea of what black films are and going back to the 1960s showing us new and interesting ways to understand them When critics and scholars write about films from the Blaxploitation movement such as Cotton Comes to Harlem Shaft Superfly and Cleopatra Jones they emphasize their importance as films made for black audiences Consequently Lisa Doris Alexander points out a film like the highly popular Oscar nominated Blazing Saddles costarring and co written by Richard Pryor is generally left out of the discussion because it doesn t fit the profile of what a black film of the period should be This is the kind of categorical thinking that Alexander seeks to broaden looking at films from the 60s to the present day in the context of their time Applying insights from black feminist thought and critical race theory to one film per decade she analyzes what each can tell us about the status of black people and race relations in the United States at the time of its release By teasing out the importance of certain films excluded from the black film canon Alexander hopes to expand that canon to include films typically relegated to the category of popular entertainment and to show how these offer more nuanced representations of black characters even as they confront negate or parody the controlling images that have defined black filmic characters for decades
