Du Bois, 2018-02-06 I venture to write again on themes on which great souls have already said greater words in the hope that I may strike here and there a half tone newer even if slighter up from the heart of my problem and the problems of my people William Edward Burghardt W E B Du Bois 1868 1963 was an American sociologist historian civil rights activist Pan Africanist author writer and editor Born in Great Barrington Massachusetts Du Bois grew up in a relatively tolerant and integrated community After completing graduate work at the University of Berlin and Harvard where he was the first African American to earn a doctorate he became a professor of history sociology and economics at Atlanta University Du Bois was one of the co founders of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in 1909 Contents Credo The Shadow of Year A Litany at Atlanta The Souls of White Folk The Riddle of the Sphinx The Hands of Ethiopia The Princess of the Hither Isles Of Work and Wealth The Second Coming The Servant in the House Jesus Christ in Texas Of the Ruling of Men The Call The Damnation of Women Children of the Moon The Immortal Child Almighty Death Of Beauty and Death The Prayers of God The Comet A Hymn to the Peoples Darkwater W.E.B. Du Bois, 2022-08-29 Du Bois foundational investigation of social justice and civil rights by means of essay poetry prayer and short science fiction A new edition with a new introduction Du Bois radical text is a rare statement of values formed around the vision of a collective life where the humanity of black women and men is treated with dignity and equality He expresses his themes through a series of literary forms polemic essay spirituals poetry and short science fiction each of which forms a pulse of social justice from a time when a true understanding of intersections between poverty work racism and feminism was rare A new title in the Foundations of Black Science Fiction series FLAME TREE 451 From mystery to crime supernatural to horror and myth fantasy and science fiction Flame Tree 451 offers a healthy diet of werewolves and robots mad scientists secret worlds lost civilizations and escapist fantasies Discover a storehouse of tales ancient and modern gathered specifically for the reader of the fantastic The Foundations titles also explore the roots of modern fiction and brings together neglected works which deserve a wider readership as part of a series of classic essential books Darkwater Voices from Within the Veil by W. E. B. Du Bois W. E. B. Du Bois, 2017-09-04 These are the things of which men think who live of their own selves and the dwelling place of their fathers of their neighbors of work and service of rule and reason and women and children of Beauty and Death and War To this thinking I have only to add a point of view I have been in the world but not of it I have seen the human drama from a veiled corner where all the outer tragedy and comedy have reproduced themselves in microcosm within From this inner torment of souls the human scene without has interpreted itself to me in unusual and even illuminating ways For this reason and this alone I venture to write again on themes on which great souls have already said greater words in the hope that I may strike here and there a half tone newer even if slighter up from the heart of my problem and the problems of my people Between the sterner flights of logic I have sought to set some little alightings of what may be poetry They are tributes to Beauty unworthy to stand alone yet perversely in my mind now at the end I know not whether I mean the Thought for the Fancy or the Fancy for the Thought or why the book trails off to playing rather than standing strong on unanswering fact But this is always is it not the Riddle of Life Many of my words appear here transformed from other publications and I thank the Atlantic the Independent the Crisis and the Journal of Race Development for letting me use them again Darkwater W.
