Diaspora Identity The Sociology Of Culture In Southeast Asia:

Diaspora and Identity J. R. Clammer, 2002 This book shows how through the application of the methods of cultural studies fresh readings of Southeast Asian societies can be undertaken readings that not only reveal fresh facets of the complexity and fascination of the region but also place it back at the centre of current theoretical debates in the social sciences and Asian studies BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved South Asian Diaspora, Transnationalism and Identity Ajaya K. Sahoo, Brij Maharaj, 2025-10-20 This book examines how members of the South Asian diaspora one of the world's largest diasporic communities forge complex hybrid identities at the intersection of homeland traditions and host society influences Against the backdrop of significant deterritorialization and cultural diversity it explores the nuanced ways multiple generations navigate between preserving heritage and adapting to new environments Through rich multidisciplinary perspectives the volume investigates The blending of traditional practices with new cultural elements The delicate balance between adaptation and heritage preservation The emergence of unique cultural spaces shaped by transnational connections Organized into two comprehensive sections identity formation and transnational practices this collection offers valuable insights into the lived experiences of South Asian communities worldwide and is essential reading for scholars and students in diaspora studies migration research transnationalism and South Asian cultural studies The chapters in this book were originally published in South Asian Diaspora Diaspora and Identity Ajaya Sahoo, Gabriel Sheffer, 2016-04-29 This book investigates the identity issues of South Asians in the diaspora It engages the theoretical and methodological debates concerning processes of culture and identity in the contemporary context of globalisation and transnationalism It analyses the South Asian diaspora a perfect route to a deeper understanding of contemporary socio cultural transformations and the way in which information and communication technology functions as both a catalyst and indicator of such transformations The book will be of interest to scholars of diaspora studies cultural studies international migration studies and ethnic and racial studies This book is a collection of papers from the journal South Asian Diaspora Discourses, Agency and Identity in Malaysia Zawawi Ibrahim, Gareth Richards, Victor T. King, 2021-10-23 This book seeks to break new ground both empirically and conceptually in examining discourses of identity formation and the agency of critical social practices in Malaysia Taking an inclusive cultural studies perspective it questions the ideological narrative of race and ethnicity that dominates explanations of conflicts and cleavages in the Malaysian context The contributions are organised in three broad themes Identities in Contestation Borders Complexities and Hybridities takes a range of empirical studies literary translation religion gender ethnicity indigeneity and sexual orientation to break down preconceived notions of fixed identities This then opens up an examination of Identities and Movements Agency and Alternative Discourses in which contributors deal with counter hegemonic social movements of anti racism young people environmentalism and independent publishing that explicitly seek to open up greater critical democratic space within the

Malaysian polity The third section Identities and Narratives Culture and the Media then provides a close textual reading of some exemplars of new cultural and media practices found in oral testimonies popular music film radio programming and storytelling who have consciously created bodies of work that question the dominant national narrative This book is a valuable interdisciplinary work for advanced students and researchers interested in representations of identity and nationhood in Malaysia and for those with wider interests in the fields of critical cultural studies and discourse analysis Here is a fresh startling book to aid the task of unbinding the straitjackets of Malay Chinese and Indian with which colonialism bound Malaysia's plural inheritance and on which the postcolonial state continues to rely In it a panoply of unlikely identities Bajau liminality Kelabit philosophy Islamic feminism refugee hybridity and more finds expression and offers hope for liberation Rachel Leow University of Cambridge This book shakes the foundations of race thinking in Malaysian studies by expanding the range of cases perspectives and outcomes of identity It offers students of Malaysia an examination of identity and agency that is expansive critical and engaging and its interdisciplinary depth brings Malaysian studies into conversation with scholarship across the world Sumit Mandal University of Nottingham Malaysia This is a much needed work that helps us to take apart the colonial inherited categories of race which informed the notion of the plural society the idea of plurality without multiculturalism It complicates the picture of identity by bringing in religion gender indigeneity and sexual orientation and helps us to imagine what a truly multiculturalist Malaysia might look like Syed Farid Alatas National University of Singapore

Cultural Rights and Justice John Clammer, 2018-12-11 This book provides an innovative contribution to the emerging field of culture and development through the lens of cultural rights arguing in favour of a fruitful dialogue between human rights development studies critical cultural studies and concerns about the protection and preservation of cultural diversity It breaks with established approaches by introducing the themes of aesthetics embodiment narrative and peace studies into the field of culture and development and in doing so proposes both an expanded conception of cultural rights and a holistic vision of development that not only includes these elements in a central way but which argues that genuine sustainability must include the cultural dimension including the notion of cultural justice as recognition protection and respect extended to the many expressions of human imagination in this world

South Asian Diasporas and (Imaginary) Homelands Clelia Clini, Deimantas Valančiūnas, 2024-11-18 This edited volume looks at the ways in which films literature photography and social media construct images of homelands and diasporas as well as the ways in which they facilitate exchanges between them The volume presents with a dialogue between these representations and analyses how they are constructed disseminated appropriated and or challenged in relation to recent political developments in South Asia and in the diaspora Focusing on images and narratives about South Asia and its diaspora the book aims to re-centre the political nature of representations as it addresses the interplay between representation imagination and identity with a specific focus on the South Asian diasporic experience This book will interest students and scholars of media communication popular culture cultural studies Asian studies politics and sociology The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of South Asian Diaspora Routledge Handbook of the South Asian Diaspora Joya Chatterji, David Washbrook, 2014-01-03 South Asia's diaspora is among the world's largest and most widespread and it is growing exponentially It is estimated that over 25 million persons of Indian descent live abroad and many more millions have roots in other countries of the subcontinent in Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka There are 3 million South Asians in the UK and approximately the same number resides in North America South Asians are an extremely significant presence in Southeast Asia and Africa and increasingly visible in the Middle East This interdisciplinary handbook on the South Asian diaspora brings together contributions by leading scholars and rising stars on different aspects of its history anthropology and geography as well as its contemporary political and socio-cultural implications The Handbook is split into five main sections with chapters looking at mobile South Asians in the early modern world before moving on to discuss diaspora in relation to empire nation nation state and the neighbourhood and globalisation and culture Contributors highlight how South Asian diaspora has influenced politics business labour marriage family and culture This much needed and pioneering venture provides an invaluable reference work for students scholars and policy makers interested in South Asian Studies

Boundaries, Identity and belonging in Modern Judaism Maria Diemling, Larry Ray, 2015-09-07 The drawing of boundaries has always been a key part of the Jewish tradition and has served to maintain a distinctive Jewish identity At the same time these boundaries have consistently been subject to negotiation transgression and contestation The increasing fragmentation of Judaism into competing claims to membership from Orthodox adherence to secular identities has brought striking new dimensions to this complex interplay of boundaries and modes of identity and belonging in contemporary Judaism Boundaries Identity and Belonging in Modern Judaism addresses these new dimensions bringing together experts in the field to explore the various and fluid modes of expressing and defining Jewish identity in the modern world Its interdisciplinary scholarship opens new perspectives on the prominent questions challenging scholars in Jewish Studies Beyond simply being born Jewish observance of Judaism has become a lifestyle choice and active assertion Addressing the demographic changes brought by population mobility and marrying out as well as the complex relationships between Israel and the Diaspora this book reveals how these shifting boundaries play out in a global context where Orthodoxy meets innovative ways of defining and acquiring Jewish identity This book is essential reading for students and scholars of Jewish Studies as well as general Religious Studies and those interested in the sociology of belonging and identities Sport and South Asian Diasporas Stanley

Thangaraj, Daniel Burdsey, Rajinder Dudrah, 2015-10-14 This original collection demonstrates the importance of sporting practices spaces and leisure affiliations to understanding issues around identity post migration diaspora and transnationalism for global South Asian populations The chapters provide a critical re-examination of the roles that sport plays within and in relation to South Asian groups in the diaspora and raises a series of pertinent questions regarding the multifarious relationships between sport and South Asianness The chapters range across a wide variety of disciplines regions sports and identifications They are in conversation with each other while showing the particularity of each diasporic context and relationship to sport The book encompasses a number of global contexts from the homeland India Pakistan Afghanistan to the diaspora Fiji Norway the US the UK and addresses a broad range of sporting contexts including basketball boxing cricket cycling field hockey soccer and golf The chapters combine a range of qualitative methods including ethnography auto ethnography participant observation memoir interview and textual analysis film television and print media This collection comprises the latest cutting edge research in the field and will be essential reading for scholars and students both of sport and South Asian diasporas This book was published as a special issue of South Asian Popular Culture The Chinese Overseas Hong Liu,2006
