Expanding the Lexicon Sabine Arndt-Lappe, Angelika Braun, Claudine Moulin, Esme Winter-Froemel, 2018-01-22 The creation of new lexical units and patterns has been studied in different research frameworks focusing on either system internal or system external aspects from which no comprehensive view has emerged The volume aims to fill this gap by studying dynamic processes in the lexicon understood in a wide sense as not being necessarily limited to the word level by bringing together approaches directed to morphological productivity as well as approaches analyzing general types of lexical innovation and the role of discourse related factors The papers deal with ongoing changes as well as with historical processes of change in different languages and reflect on patterns and specific subtypes of lexical innovation as well as on their external conditions and the speakers motivations for innovating Moreover the diffusion and conventionalization of innovations will be addressed In this way the volume contributes to understanding the complex interplay of structural cognitive and functional factors in the lexicon as a highly dynamic domain The Language of Art and Cultural Heritage Ana Pano Alamán, 2020-03-04 Communicating art and cultural heritage has become a crucial and challenging task since these sectors together with tourism heritage represent a key economic resource worldwide In order to activate this economic and social potential art and cultural heritage need to be disseminated through effective communicative strategies Adopting a wide variety of digital humanities approaches and a plurilingual perspective the essays gathered in this book provide an extensive and up to date overview of digital linguistic resources and research methods that will contribute to the design and implementation of such strategies Cultural and artistic content curators specialised translators in the fields of art architecture tourism and web documentaries researchers in art history and tourism communication and cultural heritage management professionals among others will find this book extremely useful due to its provision of some concrete

In contrast to traditional Enlightenment studies that focus solely on authors and ideas Gary Kates employs a literary lens to offer a wholly original history of the period in Europe from 1699 to 1780 Each chapter is a biography of a book which tells the story of the text from its inception through to the revolutionary era with wider aspects of the Enlightenment era being revealed through the narrative of the book's publication and reception Here Kates joins new approaches to book history with more traditional intellectual history by treating authors publishers and readers in a balanced fashion throughout Using a unique database of 18th century editions representing 5 000 titles the book looks at the multifaceted significance of bestsellers from the time It analyses key works by Voltaire Adam Smith Madame de Graffigny Jean Jacques Rousseau and David Hume and champions the importance of a crucial innovation of the age the rise of the erudite blockbuster which for the first time in European history helped to popularize political theory among a large portion of the middling classes Kates also highlights how when and why some of these books were read in the European colonies as well as incorporating the responses of both ordinary men and women as part of the reception histories that are so integral to the volume
