Daughter Zitkala-Sa, IKTOMI is a spider fairy He wears brown deerskin leggings with long soft fringes on either side and tiny beaded moccasins on his feet His long black hair is parted in the middle and wrapped with red red bands Each round braid hangs over a small brown ear and falls forward over his shoulders He even paints his funny face with red and yellow and draws big black rings around his eyes He wears a deerskin jacket with bright colored beads sewed tightly on it Iktomi dresses like a real Dakota brave In truth his paint and deerskins are the best part of him if ever dress is part of man or fairy Iktomi is a wily fellow His hands are always kept in mischief He prefers to spread a snare rather than to earn the smallest thing with honest hunting Why he laughs outright with wide open mouth when some simple folk are caught in a trap sure and fast He never dreams another lives so bright as he Often his own conceit leads him hard against the common sense of simpler people Poor Iktomi cannot help being a little imp And so long as he is a naughty fairy he cannot find a single friend No one helps him when he is in trouble No one really loves him Those who come to admire his handsome beaded jacket and long fringed leggings soon go away sick and tired of his vain vain words and heartless laughter Thus Iktomi lives alone in a cone shaped wigwam upon the plain One day he sat hungry within his teepee Suddenly he rushed out dragging after him his blanket Quickly spreading it on the ground he tore up dry tall grass with both his hands and tossed it fast into the blanket Tying all the four corners together in a knot he threw the light bundle of grass over his shoulder Snatching up a slender willow stick with his free left hand he started off with a hop and a leap From side to side bounced the bundle on his back as he ran light footed over the uneven ground Soon he came to the edge of the great level land On the hilltop he paused for breath With wicked smacks of his dry parched lips as if tasting some tender meat he looked straight into space toward the marshy river bottom With a thin palm shading his eyes from the western sun he peered far away into the lowlands munching his own cheeks all the while Ah ha grunted he satisfied with what he saw A group of wild ducks were dancing and feasting in

Sinister Yogis David Gordon White,2010-07-15 Since the 1960s yoga has become a billion dollar industry in the West attracting housewives and hipsters New Agers and the old aged But our modern conception of yoga derives much from nineteenth century European spirituality and the true story of yoga's origins in South Asia is far richer stranger and more entertaining than most of us realize To uncover this history David Gordon White focuses on yoga's practitioners Combing through millennia of South Asia's vast and diverse literature he discovers that yogis are usually portrayed as wonder workers or sorcerers who use their dangerous supernatural abilities which can include raising the dead possession and levitation to acquire power wealth and sexual gratification As White shows even those yogis who aren't downright villainous bear little resemblance to Western assumptions about them At turns rollicking and sophisticated Sinister Yogis tears down the image of yogis as detached contemplative teachers finally placing them in their proper context
