Dave Eggers Visitants:

Conversations with Dave Eggers Scott F. Parker, 2022-01-04 It's been barely twenty years since Dave Eggers burst onto the American literary scene with the publication of his memoir A Heartbreaking Work of Staggering Genius. In that time he has gone on to publish several books of fiction, a few more books of nonfiction, a dozen books for children, and many harder-to-classify works. In addition to his authorship, Eggers has established himself as an influential publisher, editor, and designer. He has also founded a publishing company, McSweeney's, two magazines, Might and McSweeney's Quarterly Concern, and several nonprofit organizations. This whirlwind of productivity within publishing and beyond gives Eggers a unique standing among American writers: jack of all trades, master of some. The interviews contained in Conversations with Dave Eggers suggest the range of Eggers's pursuits, a range that is reflected in the variety of the interviews themselves. In addition to the expected interviews with major publications, Eggers engages here with obscure magazines and blogs, trade publications, international publications, student publications, and children from a mentoring program run by one of his nonprofits. To read the interviews in sequence is to witness Eggers's rapid evolution. The cultural hysteria around Eggers's memoir and his complicated relationship with celebrity are clear in many of the earlier interviews. From there, as the buzz around him mellows, Eggers responds in kind, allowing writing and his other endeavors to come to the fore of his conversations. Together, these interviews provide valuable insight into a driving force in contemporary American literature.

Visitants Dave Eggers, 2015-03-10 Visitants is Dave Eggers's first collection of travel writing. The book begins at 140kph with Eggers being driven across the deserts of Saudi Arabia by a hired driver who declares "American boom boom." This opening sets the stage for the collection's vast cultural scope and ever-present sense of adventure, inquisitiveness, and daring. From Saudi Arabia, Eggers takes us further on freewheeling sojourns in the likes of Cuba and Thailand, followed by brief stopovers in Croatia and Syria, and thought-provoking meditative expositions on South Sudan. Globetrotters and Eggers fans alike will find a faithful companion in his unique combination of humor, humanism, and empathy.

How We Are Hungry
Dave Eggers, 2010-05-28 How We Are Hungry is a gripping, lyrical, and soulful collection of stories from the acclaimed author of A Heartbreaking Work of Staggering Genius. Ranging from a doomed Irish setter's tales of running and jumping, After I Was Thrown in the River and Before I Drowned, to a bitterly comic meditation on suicide and friendship, Climbing to the Window Pretending to Dance, and from the Egyptian desert to the asphalt of Interstate 5, these stories are Eggers at his finest. By turns devastating, clear-eyed, and funnily, incredibly funny, this collection is a marvel.

The Tenants of Moonbloom
Edward Lewis Wallant, 2018-02-06 Norman Moonbloom is a loser, a drop-out who can't even make it as a deadbeat. His brother, a slumlord, hires him to collect rent in the buildings he owns in Manhattan. Making his rounds from apartment to apartment, Moonbloom confronts a wildly varied assortment of brilliantly described urban characters, among them a gay jazz musician with a sideline as a gigolo, a Holocaust survivor, and a brilliant young black writer modeled on James Baldwin.

Moonbloom hears their cries of outrage and abuse he learns about their secret sorrows and desires And as he grows familiar with their stories he finds that he is drawn in spite of his best judgment into a desperate attempt to improve their lives
