

The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe Answer Key

1. Why are the children leaving their parents at the beginning of the book?

The German blitz (bombing) of London made it necessary for one million of London's children to be evacuated from the city.

2. What are their names?

Peter, Susan, Edmund, Lucy

3. What elements of Lewis' childhood home are similar to the evacuation home of the Pevensie children?

It is a large, old house with many places to explore.

4. When the children had gone upstairs on the first night, Peter said, "We've fallen on our feet and no mistake...". What did he mean by that?

He was happy about where they were. Things were going to be splendid.

5. There are several running small motifs in this book - for instance, the children (except Edmund) always remembering to leave the wardrobe door ajar. Can you think of any others?

This question may be difficult for students who have not had practice looking for small motifs. That is ok. You can give this one to them: Eyes are discussed over and over in the book.

6. Philosophy Question: Chronological snobbery

Chronological snobbery is the name given by Lewis and J.R.R. Tolkien to the prevalent idea of the Modern Era, that only modern things are valid, useful, or important (that we shouldn't pay attention to old things, histories, people, or ideas). Both men felt that our culture endangers itself by turning away from the past. Both men willfully developed subcreations that contained Pre-Modern ideas, peoples, and lifestyles.

With this in mind, why do you suppose that Lewis uses a medieval setting as the time period of Narnia in this story?

Lewis is placing Narnia in a medieval setting to address chronological snobbery and is saying we have important things to learn from the past.

7. How did the Witch lure Edmund into her clutches?

She offered food and drink, and warmth, and flattered him.

8. What character flaws did Edmund exhibit in the incident in Chapter 4 when he joined her on her sledge?

Accept various thoughtful answers such as: He was irritable, unforgiving, prideful, naïve.

9. In chapter 5, the professor twice complained about modern education. What did he say?

"Logic! Why don't they teach logic in these schools?" and "Nothing is more probable," said the
