The Church Usher Robert Degraw, 2010-03 In my youth I would watch the ushers at church and thought it would be neat to usher It didn t look hard and I d get to greet everyone When I got old enough I volunteered and was hooked After I was married and moved to the big city the church I attend was very large and like most churches they needed ushers I was promoted very quickly and the responsibility didn t bother me Then I was drawn to a new daughter church This was a challenge a brand new church I offered what I could When things got settled I was running one of the services When the Head ushers spot came open I didn't think I was ready so I prayed about it. A calmness came over me and I knew then it was what God wanted me to do. David Foos, Head Usher, Canyon Hills Community Church, Bothell, Washington. Am I a Better Christian on Zoloft? Mark Tabb, 2025-06-03. When you've done all the right things, read all the right books, and listened to all the right worship songs, yet still feel like you don't have this faith thing figured out, what do you do? It can be hard to voice the questions and doubts floating around your head and heart to others. But you're not the only one who feels that way. For anyone tired of church politics, the unspoken rules of Christian subculture, and taking themselves too seriously, Mark Tabb is your new best friend. He asks the questions you might hesitate to admit having, like "Can I call myself a Christian if I don't watch The Chosen? Is God kind of mean but we're all afraid to say something? If I believe God is in control, why am I upset about politics? Why don't I feel it? What if I'm wrong, and more?" Not only will he explore the answers to ten specific questions, he'll show you how to get comfortable talking with others about all the weird and uncomfortable questions you have. Because figuring out life together just might be the catalyst we need to renew our faith and our hope for the future. Strategic Vision Frank Damazio, 2013-09-30. Vision is both real and definable. Strategic vision combines real and definable factors that when mixed wisely and effectively propels a church forward. Strategic Vision provides a clear set of directives and expectations with which an entire church strategy can be framed. The first step in forming a strategic vision is for the leader to develop a personal vision. This personal vision grows into an all-encompassing kingdom vision with every other level of vision between. From the foundation of a vision leader, all other elements of vision flow. Los Angeles County Assessment Practices Survey California. State Board of Equalization, 2013.
