Church To Believe In:

We Believe in One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church Angelo Di Berardino, 2010-01-29 This volume offers patristic comment on the second half of the third article of the Nicene Creed Readers will gain insight into the history and substance of what the early church believed about the nature of the church and the consummation of all things

We Believe in God and in Christ. Not in the Church Marijn de Kroon, 2009-01-01 This English translation from the Dutch volume is a study of a quotation by St Augustine as it was understood in the late medieval period Marijn de Kroon focuses on how this quotation was interpreted by two theologians Wessel Gansfort the Northern humanist and theologian connected to the Devotio moderna and the Brethren of the Common Life and Martin Bucer the Protestant reformer who further developed Gansfort's ideas This study is accompanied by a series of shorter texts all showing the reception of Augustine's phrase in late medieval theology and contrasting it with Gansfort's understanding of it which Bucer was to adopt With his commented edition of source texts de Kroon throws a new light on the links between late medieval and Reformation thought demonstrating how a fully fledged reformer like Bucer used the works of medieval theologians In fact this is the first work to point to a concrete case of Gansfort's influence on the Reformation

Church Invisible Andrew Gamman, 2013-11-16 We are living in a time in which we are seeing a rapid unravelling of institutional structures in Western society and a re alignment of values The church is not faring well in this process This book takes the form of an earthed and practical theology and asks the question what is the church Rather than a purely theoretical or a purely pragmatic approach it looks to the radical Reformers of the sixteenth century and finds there an emphasis on the church's invisible realities and on community both of which have a relevance to the twenty first century
