Contemporary Hollywood Masculinities Gender Genre And Politics:

Contemporary Hollywood Masculinities Susanne Kord, Elisabeth Krimmer, 2013-12-04 Kord and Krimmer investigate the most common male types cops killers fathers cowboys superheroes spies soldiers rogues lovers and losers by tracing changing concepts of masculinity in popular Hollywood blockbusters from 1992 to 2008 the Clinton and Bush eras against a backdrop of contemporary political events social developments and popular American myths Their in depth analysis of over sixty films from The Matrix and Iron Man to Pirates of the Caribbean and The Lord of the Rings shows that movies far from being mere entertainment respond directly to today's social and political realities from consumerism to family values to the War on Terror Routledge International Handbook of Masculinity Studies Lucas Gottzén, Ulf Mellström, Tamara

Shefer, 2019-11-20 The Routledge International Handbook of Masculinity Studies provides a contemporary critical and scholarly overview of theorizing and research on masculinities as well as emerging ideas and areas of study that are likely to shape research and understanding of gender and men in the future The forty eight chapters of the handbook take an interdisciplinary approach to a range of topics on men and masculinities related to identity sex sexuality culture aesthetics technology and pressing social issues The handbook's transnational lens acknowledges both the localities and global character of masculinity A clear message in the book is the need for intersectional theorizing in dialogue with feminist queer and sexuality studies in making sense of men and masculinities Written in a clear and direct style the handbook will appeal to students teachers and researchers in the social sciences and humanities as well as professionals practitioners and activists

Troubling Masculinities Glen Donnar, 2020-07-23 Troubling Masculinities Terror Gender and Monstrous Others in American Film Post 9 11 is the first multigenre study of representations of masculinity following the emergence of violent terror as a plot element in American cinema after September 11 2001 Across a broad range of subgenres including disaster melodrama monster movies postapocalyptic science fiction discovered footage and home invasion horror action thrillers and frontier westerns author Glen Donnar examines the impact of terror Others from Arab terrorists to giant monsters especially in relation to cinematic representations in earlier periods of national turmoil Donnar demonstrates that the reassertion of masculinity and American national identity in post 9 11 cinema repeatedly unravels across genres Taking up critical arguments about Hollywood's attempts to resolve male crisis through Orientalizing figures of terror he shows how this failure reflects an inability to effectively extinguish the threat or frightening difference of terror The heroes in these movies are unable to heal themselves or restore order often becoming as destructive as the threats they are supposed to be fighting Donnar concludes that interrelated anxieties about masculinity and nationhood continue to affect contemporary American cinema and politics By showing how persistent these cultural fears are the volume offers an important counternarrative to this supposedly unprecedented moment in American history Masculinity in Contemporary Science Fiction Cinema Marianne Kac-Vergne, 2017-12-14 If science fiction stages the battle between humans and non humans whether alien or machine who is elected to fight for us In the classics of science fiction cinema humanity is nearly always represented by a male and until recently a white male Spanning landmark American films from Blade Runner to Avatar this major new study offers the first ever analysis of masculinity in science fiction cinema It uncovers the evolution of masculine heroes from the 1980s until the present day and the roles played by their feminine counterparts Considering gender alongside racial and class politics Masculinity in Contemporary Science Fiction Cinema also situates filmic examples within the broader culture It is indispensable for understanding science fiction and its role in contemporary cultural politics Screening Images of American Masculinity in the Age of Postfeminism Elizabeth Abele,, John A. Gronbeck-Tedesco,2015-12-03 This collection of essays presents a sampling of film and television texts interrogating images of U S masculinity Rather than using postfeminist as a definition of contemporary feminism this collection uses the term to designate the period from the late 1980s on as a point when feminist thought gradually became more mainstream The movies and TV series examined here have achieved a level of sustained attention from critical acclaim to mass appeal to cult status Instead of beginning with a set hypothesis on the effect of the feminist movement on images of masculinity on film and television these chapters represent a range of responses that demonstrate how the conversations within these texts about American masculinity are often open ended allowing both male characters and male viewers a wider range of options Defining the relationship between U S masculinity and American feminist movements of the twentieth century is a complex undertaking The essays collected for this volume engage prominent film and television texts that directly interrogate images of U S masculinity that have appeared since second wave feminism The contributors have chosen textual examples whose protagonists actively struggle with the conflicting messages about masculinity These protagonists are more often works in progress acknowledging the limits of their negotiations and self actualization These chapters also cover a wide range of genres and decades from action and fantasy to dramas and romantic comedy from the late 1970s to today Taken together the chapters of Screening Images of American Masculinity in the Age of Postfeminism interrogate the possible screened in popular movies and television series confronting the multiple and competing visions of masculinity not after or beyond feminism but rather in its very wake

Postfeminism and Paternity in Contemporary US Film Hannah Hamad,2013-10-15 This book interrogates representations of fatherhood across the spectrum of popular U S film of the early twenty first century It situates them in relation to postfeminist discourse identifying and discussing dominant paradigms and tropes that emerge from the tendency of popular cinema to configure ideal masculinity in paternal terms It analyses postfeminist fatherhood across a range of genres including historical epics war films westerns bromantic comedies male melodramas action films family comedies and others It also explores recurring themes and intersections such as the rejuvenation of aging masculinities through fatherhood the paternalized recuperation of immature adult masculinities the relationship between fatherhood in film and 9 11 culture post racial discourse in representations of fatherhood and historically located formations of fatherhood It is the first book length study to explore the relationship between fatherhood and postfeminism in popular cinema Popular Film Music and Masculinity in Action Amanda Howell,2015-02-11 Amanda Howell offers a new perspective on the contemporary pop score as the means by which masculinities not seen or heard before become a part of post World War II American cinema Popular Film Music and Masculinity in Action addresses itself to an eclectic mix of film from Elvis and Travolta star vehicles to Bruckheimer produced blockbuster action including the work of musically innovative directors Melvin Van Peebles Martin Scorsese Gregg Araki and Quentin Tarantino Of particular interest is the way these films and their representations of masculinity are shaped by generic exchanges among contemporary music music cultures and film combining American cinema s long standing investment in violence as spectacle with similarly body focused pleasures of contemporary youth music Drawing on scholarship of popular music and the pop score as well as feminist film and media studies Howell addresses an often neglected area of gender representation by considering cinematic masculinity as an audio visual construction Through her analyses of music s role in action and other film genres that share its investment in violence she reveals the mechanisms by which the pop score has helped to reinvent gender and gendered fictions of male empowerment in contemporary screen entertainment Cyberbullies, Cyberactivists, Cyberpredators Lauren Rosewarne,2016-01-25

Written by an expert in media popular culture gender and sexuality this book surveys the common archetypes of Internet users from geeks nerds and gamers to hackers scammers and predators and assesses what these stereotypes reveal about our culture s attitudes regarding gender technology intimacy and identity The Internet has enabled an exponentially larger number of people individuals who are members of numerous and vastly different subgroups to be exposed to one other As a result instead of the simple jocks versus geeks paradigm of previous eras our society now has more detailed stereotypes of the undesirable the under the radar and the ostracized cyberpervs neckbeards goths tech nerds and anyone with a non heterosexual identity Each chapter of this book explores a different stereotype of the Internet user with key themes such as gender technophobia and sexuality explored with regard to that specific characterization of online users Author Lauren Rosewarne PhD supplies a highly interdisciplinary perspective that draws on research and theories from a range of fields psychology sociology and communications studies as well as feminist theory film theory political science and philosophy to analyze what these stereotypes mean in the context of broader social and cultural issues From cyberbullies to chronically masturbating porn addicts to desperate online daters readers will see the paradox in popular culture s message that while Internet use is universal actual Internet users are somehow subpar less desirable less cool less friendly than everybody else

Women Filmmakers in Contemporary Hindi Cinema Aysha Iqbal Viswamohan,2023-01-28 This book is a comprehensive anthology comprising essays on women film directors producers and screenwriters from Bollywood or the popular Hindi film industry It derives from the major theories of modernity postmodern feminism semiotics cultural production and gender performativity in globalized times The collection transcends the traditional approaches of looking at films made by women filmmakers as feminist cinema and focuses on an extraordinary group of women filmmakers like Ashwini Iyer Tiwari Bhavani Iyer Farah Khan Mira Nair Vijaya Mehta and Zoya Akhtar The volume will be of interest to academics and theorists of gender and Hindi cinema as well as anybody interested in contemporary Hindi films in their various manifestations Race, Gender, and Sexuality in Post-Apocalyptic TV and Film Barbara Gurr, 2015-10-07 This book offers analyses of the roles of race gender and sexuality in the post apocalyptic visions of early twenty first century film and television shows Contributors examine the production reproduction and re imagination of some of our most deeply held human ideals through sociological anthropological historical and feminist approaches
