Christian identity shaping how Christians think about faith worship and community The Nicene Creed recited in churches across the world invites not only a shared confession but also a deep and ongoing conversation about who God is and how God relates to the world The Council's articulation of the consubstantiality of the Son with the Father laid the foundation for Trinitarian doctrine and safeguarded the mystery of salvation It continues to serve as a rich source of interdisciplinary exploration and inspire fresh theological inquiry into the mystery of divine communion the incarnation of Christ and the unity and identity of the Church On the 1700th anniversary of this historic event the essays in this volume collectively re-examine earlier debates introduce fresh perspectives and renew dialogue around doctrines as vital today as in the fourth century Emphasising the value of constructive engagement between traditions and exploring how Trinitarian theology continues to inform Christian witness in a complex and changing world this volume offers essential reading for anyone seeking to deepen their understanding of a foundational aspect of Christian faith and history Secrets of Watchman Nee Dana Roberts, 2005 This is a well researched easy to read personal glimpse into the soul of one of the world's great teachers Eschatology and Mission: The Triune God brings Life in the Past, Present, and for Eternity Pieter Verster, 2024-12-31 Eschatology and mission relate to some of the most important theological aspects It is obvious that presently the theological discussion about eschatology raises new questions concerning its place regarding the implications for mission Without a clear understanding of eschatology missiology is unable to answer the questions of the world in which it finds itself at the moment
