The Secret of Progress (Classic Reprint) W. Cunningham, 2016-10-16 Excerpt from The Secret of Progress Buckle¹ regarded it as clear that militarism and high intellectual development were not compatible till recently many people were prepared to believe that warfare was alien to the interest of civilised peoples and could only occur among half civilised or backward races But this war has shown that these hopes were vain and that the last result of civilisation was not to render war impossible but to give the means of carrying it out on a vastly extended scale The increase of knowledge and of power over nature and the sense of the benefits of intercourse and inter communication have not sufficed to give us any immunity from war About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
