W. Lau, 2013-11-07 East Asia is at the heart of the global economic transformation and the countries of the region are witnessing rapidly changing labour markets alongside the pressure to cut production costs and lower taxes in order to become successful competition states These changes have resulted in increased welfare demands which governments organizations and agencies across the region have had to address This book examines welfare regimes in the Greater China region encompassing mainland China Hong Kong Macao and Taiwan In so doing it explores the ways in which the rapid growth and internationalisation of the economy across Greater China is presenting new social policy challenges that governments social welfare organizations and agencies in the region are having to respond to Rather than simply describing and categorising welfare systems the contributors to this volume add to our understanding of how one of the major economic transformations of the contemporary era in East Asia is shaping welfare provision in the region In turn in this context of economic change they examine the new strategies and measures that have been adopted in order to reduce the heavy burden on the state in terms of welfare provision whilst also attempting to diversify funding and provision sources to meet the pressing welfare needs Based upon extensive fieldwork by leading scholars of social policy this book will appeal to students and scholars of Asian social policy comparative development and social policy social welfare and Chinese studies

Poverty in a Rich Society Maggie Lau, 2017-03-15 Hong Kong has remained a wealthy financial hub despite its export-oriented economy being adversely interrupted by the challenging global economic uncertainties and vulnerabilities that have occurred since the late 1990s Yet Hong Kong's income inequality is greater than that in any developed economy The growing unequal income distribution and poverty in Hong Kong have aroused public concern This book is a timely and important opportunity to advance the theory and practice of poverty and social exclusion measurement and to conduct policy relevant analyses in Hong Kong This collection was inspired by the workshop formed one key research output of the Poverty and Social Exclusion in Hong Kong PSEHK project funded by the Research Grants Council and the UK Economic and Social Research Council It is hoped that this collection will inspire comparative research and policy analyses for better policy initiatives

Globalizing China - Social and Governance Reforms Ka Ho Mok, 2022-12-30 Unlike most books which consider China's transformation and globalization over the last four decades by focusing on China's economic growth this book examines how the Chinese regime has handled the increasingly complex sociopolitical and socio-economic challenges generated as a result of the country's economic growth and transformation challenges arising both from within the country and also from the external political environment Based on extensive original research the book outlines how China's economic development has generated social and governance pressures discusses the government's social educational and governance reforms and highlights how China's development experiences which differ from the Western economies with democratic political regimes have drawn increasing attention from other countries in the developing world as an example to follow
