

maylis de kerangal à ce stade de la nuit

Lampedusa. Une nuit d'octobre 2013, une femme entend à la radio ce nom aux résonances multiples. Il fait rejaillir en elle la figure de Burt Lancaster — héros du Guépard de Visconti et du Swimmer de Frank Perry — puis, comme par ressac, la fin de règne de l'aristocratie sicilienne en écho à ce drame méditerranéen : le naufrage d'un bateau de migrants.

Écrit à la première personne, cet intense récit sonde un nom propre et ravive, dans son sillage, un imaginaire traversé de films aimés, de paysages familiers, de lectures nomades, d'écrits antérieurs. Lampedusa, île de littérature et de cinéma devenue l'épicentre d'une tragédie humaine. De l'inhospitalité européenne aussi. Entre méditation nocturne et art poétique À ce stade de la nuit est un jalon majeur dans le parcours littéraire de Maylis de Kerangal.

Maylis de Kerangal est l'auteure de cinq romans aux Éditions Verticales, dont Corniche Kennedy (2008), Naissance d'un pont (prix Médicis 2010 et prix Franz Hessel) et Réparer les vivants (2014, élu par une dizaine de prix littéraires), ainsi que des récits Ni fleurs ni couronnes (« Minimales », 2006) et Tangente vers l'est (« Minimales », 2012 ; prix Landerneau).

Necrofiction and The Politics of Literary Memory Oana Panaïté, 2022-06-15 Contemporary literature gathers in a commemorative site the remains of history and its own story by erecting literary tombs Necrofiction and The Politics of Literary Memory argues that current narratives of the aftermath enable writers to honour the past while casting off its burdensome legacy and to dismantle while reassembling affective political and aesthetic communities The genre is defined and discussed in relation to other literary forms such as trauma writing historical novels archival narratives biofiction or field literature Necrofiction fulfils in distinct ways the social and artistic function of an individual or collective act of remembrance of a lost family member or a historical figure At the same time it offers a creative space in which the authors can overcome the burden of literary tradition by incorporating existing models and devices into their own poetic art while as demonstrated by the works of five writers whose personal and artistic trajectories transcend political cultural and linguistic frontiers Linda L Patrick Modiano Assia Djebar Patrick Chamoiseau and Maylis de Kerangal By examining the ways in which fiction both reflects and resists what Achille Mbembe has defined as necropolitics Necrofiction and The Politics of Literary Memory delves into the contentious yet intimate relationship between singular models of literary remembrance and the frameworks of hegemonic discourses

The Migrant Canon in Twenty-First-Century France Oana Sabo, 2018-04 The Migrant Canon in Twenty First Century France explains the causes of twenty first century global migrations and their impact on French literature and the French literary establishment A marginal genre in 1980s France since the turn of the century migrant literature has become central to criticism and publishing Oana Sabo addresses previously unanswered questions about the proliferation of contemporary migrant texts and their shifting themes and forms mechanisms of literary legitimation and notions of critical and commercial achievement Through close readings of novels by Mathias Vard Milan Kundera Dany Laferrière Henri Lopès André Makine Ric Emmanuel Schmitt Alice Zeniter and others and sociological analyses of their consecrating authorities including the Prix littéraire de la Porte Dorée the Académie française publishing houses and online reviewers Sabo argues that these texts are best understood as cultural commodities that mediate between literary and economic forms of value academic and mass readerships and national and global literary markets By examining the latest literary texts and cultural agents not yet subjected to sufficient critical study Sabo contributes to contemporary literature cultural history migration studies and literary sociology

Repair the World Alexandre Gefen, 2024-08-19 Talk of repair has become ubiquitous in recent years In the age of trauma culture art and literature have a new purpose to do justice to console comfort and heal Drawing on works of twenty first century French language literature this monograph shows how literature can not only serve as a means of personal development but expand our capacity for empathy help repair the brokenness implied in victimhood and redress individual and collective traumas Centered on a critical reflection on discourses of repair and reparations it questions the canonical theories on the functions of literature and proposes a new way of writing and reading literary history Praise Repair the World is an invigorating and essential call to arms The modern category of the literary it declares is being outpaced by the contemporary uses of literature as a medium of exorcism empathy reparation testimony commemoration existential renewal and ethical or political connectivity Neither celebrating nor condemning such uses Gefen models a much needed style of criticism interdisciplinary pragmatic relational that comes to grips with their importance Rita Felski the John Stewart Bryan Professor and Professor of English at the University of Virginia USA In an era where self help memoir and autobiography command more than their fair share of publisher s lists in France it s tempting some fifty years after post structuralism s heyday to ascribe an impending death of literature to a taste for narcissistic exhibitionism in French literary culture But why bemoan the waning relevance of the question what is literature asks Alexandre Gefen when evidence abounds in the new century that literary writing increasingly posits itself as a restorative reparative act In the best instances authors who give form to embodied experience imaginatively forge with their readers empathetic bonds of the sort that secular and religious institutions long sustained Repair the World is not only a capacious study of writers who hail from surprisingly broad sectors of French society from health and social workers to skilled laborers journalists and educators it s a situated call for a pragmatics of reading that makes of each book an intervention into the fabric of the real Harnessing sources in affect theory trauma studies ethics and cognitive science Alexandre Gefen performs a critically reparative act all his own reminding us that the notion of literature as autonomous object was itself a historical construct in short an ideology Reading and writing have always conjoined care for the self and care for others and it s upon that reciprocity that the communities of sense of tomorrow can flourish in a spirit of reparative humanism Derek Schilling Professor of French Director of the Centre Louis Marin Department of Modern Languages and Literatures Johns Hopkins University USA Alexandre Gefen s wide ranging thought provoking study takes stock of a paradigm shift in contemporary French literature away from a model of autonomy and intransitivity to ways of writing and reading that seek to repair restore reassure and rebuild From the varied forms of expressivity found in self narratives to the empathetic projections of fiction Repair the World maps out an expanding literary territory that seeks not critical negativity but rather the power to intervene for good in individual and collective life While reserving judgment on the actual extent of literature s effects Gefen demonstrates that contemporary projects and discourses undeniably center the therapeutic and remediative uses of literature With its nuanced readings and keen insights Repair the World has been rightly influential in France its powerful diagnosis of contemporary sensibilities resonates far beyond revealing both the promises and predicaments of literature in the twenty first century Alison James Professor of French and Chair of the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures at the University of Chicago USA What would it mean to ask Sartre s post war question What is literature in the 21st century In this wonderful essay Alexandre Gefen argues convincingly that the main purpose of literature today is to repair a broken world and memorialise forgotten lives Taking examples from predominantly contemporary French literature

he proposes that literature as therapy has replaced religions of salvation a politics of emancipation and formal experimentation Today literature s mission is to heal traumatised individuals and communities resurrect the lives of the vulnerable and commemorate their deeds in the face of the forces of oblivion For Gefen Patrick Modiano s Dora Bruder 1997 is the contemporary literary archetype of these lost identities to be rehabilitated and reinhabited Gefen describes this new role for literature without taking sides the writing is lucid compelling and non partisan In an age of victimhood testimony empathy self expression and identity Gefen s reparative paradigm is as persuasive as Sartre s political version in the age of ideology Max Silverman Professor of Modern French Studies University of Leeds UK
