Russian Foreign Policy Debates and the Conflicts in Georgia (1991-2008) Cécile Druey, 2024-04-15 Russian Foreign Policy Debates and the Conflicts in Georgia 1991 2008 Between Multilateralism and Unilateralism discusses the conflicts and crises in the former Soviet space from a historical perspective and reconstructs the often contradictory approaches of public actors in Russia on how to deal with them Notably it inquires whether the actions suggested follow a multilateral approach one based on pluralist decisions and international law or on the opposite a unilateral one concentrating exclusively on Russia's own national interests to the detriment of commonly agreed on international rules. The case of Georgia from the disintegration of the Soviet Union in 1991 to the Five Day War in August 2008 serves as an example illustrating Russian approaches to conflict management. Richly illustrated with empirical data, the three parts of this book show how foreign and security policy debates in Moscow and their outcomes on the ground evolved from a chaotic policy of ad hoc interventions in the 1990s to a coherent geopolitically informed strategy of coercion and persuasion in the 2000s. About a decade and a half before the large scale invasion of Ukraine, Moscow had already shown its willingness to go quite far in defending its interests in the former Soviet space.

The Future of the International Legal Order, Volume 3 Cyril E. Black, Richard A. Falk, 2019-01-29. The eleven contributors to this volume come to grips with the hard realities of controlling war in our modern interrelated world. All of them deal directly with the role of law in the management of conflict. From Cyril E. Black's introductory chapter, Conflict Management and World Order, to Richard J. Barnett's concluding chapter, Toward the Control of International Violence: The Limits and the Possibilities of Law, each expert moves from analysis of some immediate problem of international legal control to the direct application of law to war. The contributors include Tom J. Farer, Rosalyn Higgins, John Norton Moore, Daniel Wiles, William B. Bader, Arnold Kramish, Mason Willrich, W. Michael Reisman, and Harold Feiveson. Conflict Management is the third volume in a large scale collaborative research project intended to focus the attention of international lawyers and social scientists on the near future of the international legal order. A brochure describing the entire series is available. Cyril E. Black is Duke Professor of Russian History and Director of the Center of International Studies, Princeton University. Richard A. Falk is Milbank Professor of International Law and Practice, Princeton University. Written under the auspices of the Center of International Studies, Princeton University. The International Politics of Eurasia: v. 4: The Making of Foreign Policy in Russia and the New States of Eurasia S. Frederick Starr, Karen Dawisha, 2024-11-01. This ambitious ten volume series develops a comprehensive analysis of the evolving world role of the post Soviet successor states. Each volume considers a different factor influencing the relationship between internal politics and international relations in Russia and in the western and southern tiers of newly independent states. The collapse of the Soviet Union and the discrediting of Marxism-Leninism as a source of political legitimacy have prompted a search for fresh principles of political organization that will shape the nature of political culture in all the post Soviet countries. This volume looks at the making of foreign policy in Russia and the new states of Eurasia.
