Confessions Oxford Worlds Classics:

The Confessions Saint Augustine, 2008-08-14 Augustine of Hippo's Confessions recount how slowly and painfully he came to turn away from his youthful ideas and licentious lifestyle to become instead a staunch advocate of Christianity and one of its most influential thinkers

The Confessions Saint Augustine, 2008-08-14 In this new translation the brilliant and impassioned descriptions of Augustine's colourful early life are conveyed to the English reader with accuracy and art Augustine tells of his wrestlings to master his sexual drive his rare ascent from a humble Algerian farm to the edge of the corridors of high power at the imperial court of Milan and his renunciation of secular ambition and marriage as he recovered the faith that his mother had taught him It was in a Milan garden that Augustine finally achieved the act of will to Christian conversion which he compared to a lazy man in bed finally deciding it is time to get up and face the day

Sample Book Insights

- 1 God is great and we should praise Him But we must understand that we are not great because we are but a fragment of His creation We were created for God and our hearts are restless until they rest in Him
- 2 I want to repose on God my sole good I want to forget my ills and embrace him my only salvation I want to enlarge my mansion so that you can enter it and inebriate me I want to repair it because it has within it things that must offend your eyes But who will cleanse it
- 3 I was born a child and I lived as such But I Lord who liveth forever and in whom nothing dies before the foundation of the worlds and before all that can be called before You are and You are God and Lord of all which You have created
- 4 The infant is innocent because the source of its life milk is provided by someone else We tolerate these things because they will disappear as the child grows up
