Confronting The Classics Traditions Adventures And Innovations:

Confronting the Classics Mary Beard, 2013-09-02 A National Book Critics Circle Award finalist this is the perfect introduction to classical studies and deserves to become something of a standard work Observer Mary Beard drawing on thirty years of teaching and writing about Greek and Roman history provides a panoramic portrait of the classical world a book in which we encounter not only Cleopatra and Alexander the Great Julius Caesar and Hannibal but also the common people the millions of inhabitants of the Roman Empire the slaves soldiers and women How did they live Where did they go if their marriage was in trouble or if they were broke Or perhaps just as important how did they clean their teeth Effortlessly combining the epic with the quotidian Beard forces us along the way to reexamine so many of the assumptions we held as gospel not the least of them the perception that the Emperor Caligula was bonkers or Nero a monster With capacious wit and verve Beard demonstrates that far from being carved in marble the classical world is still very much alive Confronting the Classics: Traditions, Adventures, and Innovations Mary Beard, 2013-09-09 An internationally recognized historian presents a revealing tour of the ancient world shedding new light on Greek and Roman history The Battle of the Classics Eric Adler, 2020 This book analyzes crucial episodes in the history of American higher education in order to discover the best way to rescue the humanities It urges apologists to stop focusing on the humanistic disciplines as inculcators of poorly defined skills and envisions a globalized approach to education based on humanistic masterworks My Lots are in Thy Hands: Sortilege and its Practitioners in Late Antiquity AnneMarie Luijendijk, William E. Klingshirm, 2018-10-08 Sortilege the making of decisions by casting lots was widely practiced in the Mediterranean world during the period known as late antiquity between the third and eighth centuries CE In My Lots are in Thy Hands Sortilege and its Practitioners in Late Antiquity AnneMarie Luijendijk and William Klingshirm have collected fourteen essays that examine late antique lot divination especially but not exclusively through texts preserved in Greek Latin Coptic and Syriac Employing the overlapping perspectives of religious studies classics anthropology economics and history contributors study a variety of topics including the hermeneutics and operations of divinatory texts the importance of diviners and their instruments and the place of faith and doubt in the search for hidden order in a seemingly random world Summary and Analysis of SPQR: A History of Ancient Rome Worth Books, 2017-02-07 So much to read so little time This brief overview of SPQR tells you what you need to know before or after you read Mary Beard's book Crafted and edited with care Worth Books set the standard for quality and give you the tools you need to be a well informed reader This short summary and analysis of SPQR A History of Ancient Rome by Mary Beard includes Historical context Chapter by chapter summaries Detailed timeline of key events Profiles of the main characters Important quotes Fascinating trivia Glossary of terms Supporting material to enhance your understanding of the original work About SPQR A History of Ancient Rome by Mary Beard A sweeping history of the ancient capital of Italy SPQR contains all of the excitement of Roman conquest and a fascinating view of everyday life in the days of
