Capital Spaces The Multiple Complex Public Spaces Of A Global City:

Capital Spaces Matthew Carmona, Filipa Matos Wunderlich, 2013-05-02 In recent years it has become common place to hear claims that public space in cities across the globe has become the exclusive preserve of the wealthy and privileged at the expense of the needs of wider society Whether it is the privatization of public space through commercial developments like shopping malls and business parks the gentrification of existing spaces by campaigns against perceived anti social behaviour or the increasing domination of public areas by private transport in the form of the car the urban public space is seen as under threat But are things really that bad Has the market really become the sole factor that influences the treatment of public space Have the financial and personal interests of the few really come to dominate those of the many To answer these questions Matthew Carmona and Filipa Wunderlich have carried out a detailed investigation of the modern public spaces of London that most global of cities They have developed a new typology of public spaces applicable to all cities a typology that demonstrates that to properly assess contemporary urban places means challenging the over simplification of current critiques Global cities are made up of many overlapping public spaces good and bad this book shows how to analyze this complexity and to understand it Towards a Metropolitan Public Space Network João Rafael Santos, Maria Matos Silva, Ana Beja da Costa, 2024-10-01 This book explores the hypothesis that public space if conceptualised imagined and shaped at the metropolitan scale through innovative territorial design approaches offers the possibility to interconnect and integrate various systems in search for synergic responses to emerging societal challenges that impact large urbanised landscapes The book offers a multidimensional and multi geographic framework to discuss the role of public space on contemporary metropolitan territories as part of MetroPublicNet Building the foundations of a Metropolitan Public Space Network to support the robust low carbon and cohesive city Projects lessons and prospects in Lisbon research project The reader will find a critical and overarching perspective on the conceptual methodological and empirical lenses that unfolded throughout the research process namely a systematised decoding of the public space projects policies and rationales that shaped the recent transformation of Lisbon Metropolitan Area With a diverse range of authors actively engaged in academic research and professorship in design practice and in policy oriented roles the book concludes with the outlining of forward looking guidelines policy recommendations and design experimentations This book will be of interest to researchers and students of architecture urbanism landscape architecture and geography The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license Routledge Handbook of Urban Public Space Karen A. Franck, Te-Sheng Huang, 2023-03-20 Is it truly the end of public space This handbook presents evidence that the answer is no In cities in different parts of the world people still use public space to pursue activities of their choice The book is divided into seven sections The first section presents three emerging types of public space Each of the subsequent five sections focuses on a type of activity recreation commerce protest living and celebration These sections are international in scope presenting cases of activities in Brazil China Colombia DR Congo Egypt Finland Germany Libya Taiwan Turkey and the U S The closing section composed of three chapters presents research methods for studying public space Graduate students faculty members and researchers in social science architecture landscape architecture geography and urban design will find the book useful for understanding studying and designing urban public space

Cities in Global Transition Raymond Charles Rauscher, Salim Momtaz, 2016-10-05 This book examines the planning of cities in global transition looking at Australia's Greater Sydney as a case example The focus is on metropolitan districts groups of municipalities within the Greater Sydney region The subjects of global transition and sustainable urban planning SUP are introduced in Chapter 1 How Greater Sydney approaches planning of its region and its districts is then outlined in Chapter 2 In this chapter three case study districts are selected for critiquing planning in the face of population and new development changes The districts beyond the City of Sydney are Sydney Inner West Greater Parramatta and St George The book further outlines a methodology to assess planning practices within each of the municipalities twelve case study municipalities in all within the three districts Included here are State planning principles applying to Greater Sydney with key principals selected to apply to the case study municipalities and to each district as a unit

The Urbanism of Exception Martin J. Murray, 2017-03-10 This book challenges the conventional modernist inspired understanding of urbanization as a universal process tied to the ideal typical model of the modern metropolis with its origins in the grand Western experience of city building At the start of the twenty first century the familiar idea of the city or urbanism as we know it has experienced such profound mutations in both structure and form that the customary epistemological categories and prevailing conceptual frameworks that predominate in conventional urban theory are no longer capable of explaining the evolving patterns of city making Global urbanism has increasingly taken shape as vast distended city regions where urbanizing landscapes are increasingly fragmented into discontinuous assemblages of enclosed enclaves characterized by global connectivity and concentrated wealth on the one side and distressed zones of neglect and impoverishment on the other These emergent patterns of what might be called enclave urbanism have gone hand in hand with the new modes of urban governance where the crystallization of privatized regulatory regimes has effectively shielded wealthy enclaves from public oversight and interference

Providing Public Space in a Contemporary Metropolis Claudio De Magalhães, Louie Sieh, 2024-06-26 Increasingly public space provision and management are being transferred from the public sector to real estate developers private sector organisations voluntary groups and community bodies Contrasting the more historical horizontal character of London with the intense street life of high rise Hong Kong this book tells the story of the two cities relationships with non traditional forms of public space governance The authors consider the implications for the publicness of these complex spaces and the challenges and impacts that different forms of provision have on those with a stake in them and on the cities as a whole

The Routledge Companion to Urban Regeneration Michael E. Leary, John

McCarthy,2013-10-30 In the past decade urban regeneration policy makers and practitioners have faced a number of difficult challenges such as sustainability budgetary constraints demands for community involvement and rapid urbanization in the Global South Urban regeneration remains a high profile and important field of government led intervention and policy and practice continue to adapt to the fresh challenges and opportunities of the 21st century as well as confronting long standing intractable urban problems and dilemmas This Companion provides cutting edge critical review and synthesis of recent conceptual policy and practical developments within the field With contributions from 70 international experts within the field it explores the meaning of urban regeneration in differing national contexts asking questions and providing informed discussion and analyses to illuminate how an apparently disparate field of research policy and practice can be rendered coherent drawing out common themes and significant differences The Companion is divided into six sections exploring globalization and neo liberal perspectives on urban regeneration emerging reconceptualizations of regeneration public infrastructure and public space housing and cosmopolitan communities community centred regeneration and culture led regeneration The concluding chapter considers the future of urban regeneration and proposes a nine point research agenda This Companion assembles a diversity of approaches and insights in one comprehensive volume to provide a state of the art review of the field It is a valuable resource for both advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students in Urban Planning Built Environment Urban Studies and Urban Regeneration as well as academics practitioners and politicians Routledge Handbook of Urban Planning in Africa Carlos Nunes Silva,2019-10-28 This handbook contributes with new evidence and new insights to the on going debate on the de colonization of knowledge on urban planning in Africa African cities grew rapidly since the mid 20th century in part due to rising rural migration and rapid internal demographic growth that followed the independence in most African countries This rapid urbanization is commonly seen as a primary cause of the current urban management challenges with which African cities are confronted This importance given to rapid urbanization prevented the due consideration of other dimensions of the current urban problems challenges and changes in African cities The contributions to this handbook explore these other dimensions looking in particular to the nature and capacity of local self government and to the role of urban governance and urban planning in the poor urban conditions found in most African cities It deals with current and contemporary urban challenges and urban policy responses but also offers an historical overview of local governance and urban policies during the colonial period in the late 19th and 20th centuries offering ample evidence of common features and divergent features as well on a number of facets from intra urban racial segregation solutions to the relationships between the colonial power and the natives to the assimilation policy as practiced by the French and Portuguese and the Indirect Rule put in place by Britain in some or in part of its colonies Using innovative approaches to the challenges confronting the governance of African cities this handbook is an essential read for students and scholars of Urban Africa urban planning in Africa and African Development Sustainable London? Imrie, Rob,Lees, Loretta,2014-09-24

How is London responding to social and economic crises and to the challenges of sustaining its population economy and global status Sustainable development discourse has come to permeate different policy fields including transport housing property development and education In this exciting book authors highlight the uneven impacts and effects of these policies in London including the creation of new social and economic inequalities The contributors seek to move sustainable city debates and policies in London towards a progressive socially just future that advances the public good The book is essential reading for urban practitioners and policy makers and students in social urban and environmental geography sociology and urban studies
