Contagion Film Questions:

The Question of the Aesthetic George Levine, 2022 A multi authored volume of original essays by scholars in literary studies and philosophy on the question of the aesthetic in the current critical climate Environmental Ethics and Film Pat Brereton, 2015-09-16 Environmental ethics presents and defends a systematic and comprehensive account of the moral relation between human beings and their natural environment and assumes that human behaviour toward the natural world can and is governed by moral norms In contemporary society film has provided a powerful instrument for the moulding of such ethical attitudes Through a close examination of the medium Environmental Ethics and Film explores how historical ethical values can be re imagined and re constituted for more contemporary audiences Building on an extensive back catalogue of eco film analysis the author focuses on a diverse selection of contemporary films which target audiences ethical sensibilities in very different ways Each chapter focuses on at least three close readings of films and documentaries examining a wide range of environmental issues as they are illustrated across contemporary Hollywood films This book is an invaluable resource for students and scholars of environmental communication film studies media and cultural studies environmental philosophy and ethics The Pedagogy of Adaptation Dennis Cutchins, Laurence Raw, James M. Welsh, 2010-02-23 From All Quiet on the Western Front and Gone with the Wind to No Country for Old Men and Slumdog Millionaire many of the most memorable films have been adapted from other sources And while courses on film studies are taught throughout the world The Pedagogy of Adaptation makes a strong case for treating adaptation studies as a separate discipline What makes this book unique is its claim that adaptation is above all a creative process and not simply a slavish imitation or reproduction of an original This collection of essays focuses on numerous contexts to emphasize why adaptations matter to students of literature It is the first such volume devoted exclusively to teaching adaptations from a practical teacher centered angle Many of the essays show how adaptation as a discipline can be used to prompt reflection on cultural historical and political differences Written by specialists in a variety of fields ranging from film radio theater and even language studies the book adopts a pluralistic view of adaptation showing how its processes vary across different contexts and in different disciplines Defining new horizons for the teaching of adaptation studies these essays draw on such disparate sources as Frankenstein Moby Dick and South Park This volume not only provides a resource book of lesson plans but offers valuable pointers as to why teaching literature and film can help develop students skills and improve their literacy

Undead Apocalypse Stacey Abbott, 2016-09-08 Explores the intersection of the vampire and zombie with 21st Century dystopian and post apocalyptic cinema Twenty first century film and television is overwhelmed with images of the undead Vampires and zombies have often been seen as oppositional one alluring the other repellant one seductive the other infectious With case studies of films like I Am Legend and 28 Days Later as well as TV programmes like Angel and The Walking Dead this book challenges these popular assumptions and reveals the increasing interconnection of undead genres

Exploring how the figure of the vampire has been infused with the language of science disease and apocalypse while the zombie text has increasingly been influenced by the trope of the reluctant vampire Stacey Abbott shows how both archetypes are actually two sides of the same undead coin When considered together they present a dystopian sometimes apocalyptic vision of twenty first century existence Key features Rather than seeing them as separate or oppositional this book explores the intersection and dialogue between the vampire and zombie across film and television Much contemporary scholarship on the vampire focuses on Dark Romance while this book explores the more horror based end of the genre Offers a detailed discussion of the development of zombie television Provides a detailed examination of Richard Matheson's I Am Legend including the novel the script the adaptations and the BBFC's response to Matheson's script The Humanities Pandemic Margaret Topping, 2023-07-25 This book explores how the Humanities can play an essential services role in addressing global challenges such as the Covid pandemic In arguing for their contribution alongside that of the Health Sciences it calls for a new critical engagement honest and self reflective from Humanities scholars with the question of how to overcome a fundamental challenge facing universities globally finding a common language and set of cultural assumptions between disciplines as the basis for communication The book looks at the nature of the challenges that can beset collaboration across disciplines and indeed across sectors notably between researchers and the general public and argues for a new Translational Humanities in both the sense of an applied Humanities and a Humanities that can translate itself across disciplines and sectors Crucially too it suggests that it is not narratives such as a pandemic novel or contagion film that successfully engage with contentious debates about the challenges of Covid but rather critically distant texts and thematic contexts that typically place the self in the position of other like travel narratives This book sits at a previously unconsidered intersection between debates around interdisciplinary collaboration and communication theories of intercultural contact and encounter and the role of the Humanities in tackling global issues The Art of Caregiving in Fiction, Film, and Memoir Jeffrey Berman, 2020-10-29 Bringing together the human story of care with its representation in film fiction and memoir this book combines an analysis of care narratives to inform and inspire ideas about this major role in life Alongside analysis of narratives drawn from literature and film the author sensitively interweaves the story of his wife's illness and care to illuminate perspectives on dealing with human decline Examining texts from a diverse range of authors such as Leo Tolstoy Edith Wharton and Alice Munro and filmmakers such as Ingmar Bergman and Michael Haneke it addresses questions such as why caregiving is a dangerous activity the ethical problems of writing about caregiving the challenges of reading about caregiving and why caregiving is so important It serves as a fire starter on the subject of how we can gain insight into the challenges and opportunities of caregiving through the creative arts Examinations and Analysis of Sequels and Serials in the Film Industry Seçmen, Emre Ahmet, 2023-04-25 There are many elements in the concept of visual continuity and they are all interrelated In films or film series that are described as sequels establishing a visual integrity relationship between films comes to the fore The concept of the sequel appears in two ways Sometimes while the ideas are scripted the story is divided into more than one part Sometimes the story is planned as a single movie and after a certain time it can be realized as a follow up movie film for different reasons In both systems of expression it is necessary to seek harmony between all elements of visual design Examinations and Analysis of Sequels and Serials in the Film Industry examines certain contents through the concepts of cinematography and narrative focusing more on the practical side of cinema and partially on the theoretical side It examines samples sequels serials and trilogy universes on the axis of cinematography and narration Covering topics such as film landscape repeated narrative elements and storytelling this premier reference source is an excellent resource for film industry workers film students and educators sociologists librarians academicians and researchers Film Theory Philip Simpson, Andrew Utterson, Karen J.
