Contemporary Latin American Cultural Studies:

Contemporary Latin American Cultural Studies Stephen Hart, Richard A. Young, 2014-02-24 Contemporary Latin American Cultural Studies is a collection of new essays by recognised experts from around the world on various aspects of the new discipline of Latin American cultural studies. Essays are grouped in five distinct but interconnected sections focusing respectively on I the theory of Latin American cultural studies II the icons of culture III culture as a commodity IV culture as a site of resistance and V everyday cultural practices. The essays range across a wide gamut of theories about Latin American culture; some for example analyse the role that ideas about the nation and national icons have played in the formation of a sense of identity in Latin America while others focus on the resonance underlying cultural practices as diverse as football in Argentina TV in Uruguay cinema in Brazil and the bolero and soaps of modern day Mexico. Contemporary Latin American Cultural Studies has an introduction setting the ideas explored in each section in their proper context. The essays are written in jargon free English; all Spanish terms have been translated into English and are supplemented by a concluding section with suggestions for further reading.

The Latin American Cultural Studies Reader Ana del Sarto, Alicia Ríos, Abril Trigo, 2004 Essays by intellectuals and specialists in Latin American cultural studies that provide a comprehensive view of the specific problems, topics and methodologies of the field vis à vis British and U.S. cultural studies.

The Child in Contemporary Latin American Cinema Deborah Martin, 2019-01-04 What is the child for Latin American cinema? This book aims to answer that question, tracing the common tendencies of the representation of the child in the cinema of Latin American countries and demonstrating the place of the child in the movements, genres and styles that have defined that cinema. Deborah Martin combines theoretical readings of the child in cinema and culture with discussions of the place of the child in specific national, regional and political contexts to develop in depth analyses and establish regional comparisons and trends. She pays particular attention to the narrative and stylistic techniques at play in the creation of the child's perspective and to ways in which the presence of the child precipitates experiments with film aesthetics. Bringing together fresh readings of well known films with attention to a range of little studied works, The Child in Contemporary Latin American Cinema examines films from the recent and contemporary period focussing on topics such as the death of the child in street child films, the role of the child in post dictatorship filmmaking and the use of child characters to challenge gender and sexual ideologies. The book also aims to place those analyses in a historical context, tracing links with important precursors and paying attention to the legacy of the child's figuring in the mid century movements of melodrama and the New Latin American Cinema.

Comparative Cultural Studies and Latin America Sophia A. McClennen, Earl E. Fitz, 2004 The genesis of Comparative Cultural Studies and Latin America stems from the contributors' conviction that given its vitality and excellence Latin American literature deserves a more prominent place in comparative literature publications curricula and disciplinary discussions The editors introduce the volume by first arguing that there still exists in some quarters a lingering bias against literature written in Spanish and Portuguese Secondly the authors assert that by embracing Latin American literature and culture more enthusiastically comparative literature would find itself reinvigorated placed into productive discourse with a host of issues languages literatures and cultures that have too long been paid scant academic attention Following an introduction by the editors the volume contains papers by Gene H.
