Investor Stewardship and the UK Stewardship Code Daniel Cash, Robert Goddard, 2021-09-20 This book provides a critical assessment of the development of the Stewardship Code 2020 which sets out principles regarding the role of institutional investors in corporate governance It discusses how the regulatory framework for stewardship evolved before and after the financial crisis and how that evolution resulted in the 2020 Code It then critiques the Code from a practical and academic perspective as well as evaluating the wider regulatory framework in particular the position of the FRC ARGA The book concludes by offering insight into different pathways that the evolution of stewardship may continue to take Stewardship Codes modelled on the U K s original 2010 version have been introduced in numerous markets and as such the book will be relevant for an international audience of academics regulators and policymakers in financial regulation investment regulation and financial services

Corporate Social Performance Agata Stachowicz-Stanusch, 2015-08-01 Corporate Social Performance Paradoxes Pitfalls and Pathways to the Better World is authored by a range of international experts with a diversity of backgrounds and perspectives and provides a collection of ideas examples and solutions on CSP implementation and problems that occur in this area of consideration The last decade had abundant corporate national and international ethical and financial scandals and crises After this epoch of moral catastrophes stakeholders expect that corporations which are considered as the most powerful institutions today and which have enormous impact on our planet s ecosystems and social networks will take more active roles as citizens within society and in the fight against some of the most pressing problems in the world such as poverty environmental degradation defending human rights corruption and pandemic diseases Although Corporate Social Performance CSP has been a prominent concept in management literature and in the business world in recent years it remains a fact that many business leaders still only pay lip service to CSR or are merely reacting to peer pressure by introducing it into their organizations Bevan et al 2004 4 So do really companies do well by doing good or maybe companies engage in CSR in order to offset corporate social irresponsibility Kotchen and Moony 2012 p 4 I hope that we would agree that companies and CSR only by working together guarantee their own survival and we the society and the planet will be much obliged Thom 2009 p 3

Risk Measures with Applications in Finance and Economics Michael McAleer, Wing-Keung Wong, 2019-07-23 Risk measures play a vital role in many subfields of economics and finance It has been proposed that risk measures could be analysed in relation to the performance of variables extracted from empirical real world data For example risk measures may help inform effective monetary and fiscal policies and therefore the further development of pricing models for financial assets such as equities bonds currencies and derivative securities A Special Issue of Risk Measures with Applications in Finance and Economics will be devoted to advancements in the mathematical and statistical development of risk measures with applications in finance and economics This Special Issue will bring together the theory practice and real world applications of risk measures This book is a collection of papers published in the Special Issue of Risk Measures with Applications in Finance and Economics for Sustainability in 2018

Social Impact Investing Stewart Jones, Helena de Anstiss, Carmen Garcia, 2021-12-23 Social impact investing is gaining ground as one of the most important investment trends in the world

While the size of the social impact investing market is still relatively small in global terms momentum continues to grow unabated Australia in particular is looking to develop a vibrant and transparent social impact investment market This book considers a number of innovative strategies and pragmatic policy initiatives that can see the social impact investment market flourish in Australia and internationally The book describes how social impact investing can enter the investment mainstream and how a high quality regulatory framework governing the measurement reporting and evaluation of social impact will be critical to building investor confidence and ensuring the credibility effectiveness and transparency of this market It also examines different approaches to measurement and evaluation that will ultimately be critical to the success of this market The authors also recognise that governments have a pivotal role to play in growing the social impact investing market not only in its capacity as a market facilitator and regulator but also as an active purchaser of social outcomes This book will be informative for those who wish to learn more about how governments private investors investment intermediaries social enterprises service providers and other market participants around the world can work together to initiate and grow a vibrant transparent and well functioning social impact investing market

Business Strategies for Sustainability Helen Borland,Adam Lindgreen,Francois Maon,Véronique Ambrosini,Beatriz Palacios Florencio,Joelle Vanhamme,2018-10-03

Business Strategies for Sustainability brings together important research contributions that demonstrate different approaches to business strategies for sustainability Many corporate initiatives toward what firms perceive to be sustainability are simply efficiency drives or competitive moves falling far short of actual strategies for ecological sustainability To suggest true ecological sustainability strategies this new research anthology adopts an interdisciplinary or transdisciplinary approach to discern what business strategies might look like if they were underpinned by environmental and ecological science The 23 chapters in this anthology reflect five main topic sections a delineating sustainability challenges and visions b contradiction integration and transformation of business and sustainability logics c innovating and developing strategic capabilities for sustainability d assessing and valuing sustainability and e toward multi level engagement and collaboration
