Deveny, 2003 Now available in paperback Cinema often relies on novels or short stories for narrative material Contemporary Spanish Film from Fiction examines cinematic versions of post Civil War narratives that had their debut during three key decades of recent Spanish cinema 1965 1995 This study begins with an overview of the critical problems of screen adaptation and offers a global analysis that examines film adaptations of works by fifty seven authors These include classics of twentieth century Spanish literature by authors such as Camilo Jos Cela Miguel Delibes and Luis Mart n Santos works by recent best selling authors Antonio Mu oz Molina Arturo P rez Reverte Juan Madrid and many others Directors like Vicente Aranda Mario Camus and Pilar Mir show how literary material can be transformed into superb cinema Spain s dramatic transition from dictatorship to democracy allowed new freedoms on the Spanish screen Screen adaptations of Spanish narratives often reexamine Spain s historical past or portray important aspects of contemporary Spanish society Films that receive government subsidies are a special manifestation of the national as an ideological construct and these twice told tales whether subsidized or not become a double affirmation of Spanish cultural production This illustrated study will be welcomed by those interested in film studies especially screen adaptations Spanish cinema and contemporary Spanish literature The Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Films Salvador Jiménez Murguía, Alex Pinar, 2018-05-18 Under the Franco regime 1939 1976 films produced in Spain were of poor quality promoted the regime s agenda or were heavily censored After the dictator s death the Spanish film industry transitioned into a new era one in which artists were able to more freely express themselves and tackle subjects that had been previously stifled Today films produced in Spain are among the most highly regarded in world cinema The Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Films features nearly 300 entries on the written by a host of international scholars and film critics Beginning with movies released after Franco s death this volume documents four decades of films directors actresses and actors of Spanish cinema Offering a comprehensive survey of films the entries address such topics as art culture society and politics Each includes comprehensive production details and provides brief suggestions for further reading Through its examination of the films of the post Franco period this volume offers readers valuable insights into Spanish history politics and culture An indispensable guide to one of the great world cinemas The Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Films will be of interest to students academics and the general public alike Affect and Belonging in Contemporary Spanish Fiction and Film Jesse Barker, 2017-08-24 This book brings together recent Spanish fictions and films that point to individualism as the root problem driving diverse circumstances of social economic and psychological suffering in the present and recent past The works privilege sensation movement and emotion rather than identity as the core elements of existential experience However the works also problematize notions of intersubjectivity confronting ideals of affective immersion and cultural nomadism with the concrete contexts that shape particular lives and social formations This confrontation underlies a series of crossroads or productive engagements that guide the book's five main chapters locally rooted identity and global cultural circuits historical contexts and universal modes of being personal authenticity and consumer culture migration and cultural identity Spain's historical underdevelopment and impending future crises All of these issues make affective connection and attachment the greatest existential challenge facing individuals and collectives in the contemporary world both in Spain and elsewhere Contemporary Spanish Fiction Dorothy Odatte-Wellington, 2008 Examines the work of six novelists of the Generation X group of writers in Spain including Jose Angel Manas Ray Loriga Gabriela Bustelo Ismael Grasa Belen Gopegui and Antonio Orejudo Utrilla The Dystopian Imagination in Contemporary Spanish Literature and Film Diana Q. Palardy, 2018-07-27 This study examines contemporary Spanish dystopian literature and films directly related to the 2008 financial crisis from an urban cultural studies perspective It explores culturally charged landscapes that effectively convey the zeitgeist and reveal deep rooted anxieties about issues such as globalization consumerism immigration speculation precarity and political resistance particularly by Indignados Indignant Ones from the 15 M Movement The book loosely traces the trajectory of the crisis with the first part looking at texts that underscore some of the behaviors that indirectly contributed to the crisis and the remaining chapters focusing on works that directly examine the crisis and its aftermath This close reading of texts and films by Ray Loriga Elia Barcel Ion de Sosa Jos Ardillo David Llorente Eduardo Vaquerizo and Ricardo Menendez Salmón offers insights into the creative ways that these authors and directors use spatial constructions to capture the dystopian imagination A History of Spanish Film Sally Faulkner, 2013-04-11 A History of Spanish Film explores Spanish film from the beginnings of the industry to the present day by combining some of the most exciting work taking place in film studies with some of the most urgent questions that have preoccupied twentieth century Spain It addresses new questions in film studies like prestige film and middlebrow cinema and places these in the context of a country defined by social mobility including the 1920s industrial boom the 1940s post Civil War depression and the mass movement into the middle classes from the 1960s onwards Close textual analysis of some 42 films from 1910 2010 provides an especially useful avenue into the study of this cinema for the student Uniquely offers extensive close readings of 42 films which are especially useful to students and teachers of Spanish cinema Analyses Spanish silent cinema and films of the Franco era as well as contemporary examples Interrogates film's relations with other media including literature pictorial art and television Explores both auteur and popular cinemas Establishes prestige and the middlebrow as crucial new terms in Spanish cinema studies Considers the transnationality of Spanish cinema throughout its century of existence Contemporary directors covered in this book include Almodóvar Bolaín Díaz Yanes and more

Spanishness in the Spanish Novel and Cinema of the 20th - 21st Century Cristina Sánchez-Conejero, 2009-10-02 Spanishness in the Spanish Novel and Cinema of the 20th 21st Century is an exploration of the general concept of Spanishness as all things related to Spain specifically as the multiple meanings of Spanishness and the different ways of being Spanish are depicted in 20th 21st century literary and cinematic fiction of Spain This book also represents a call for a re evaluation of what being Spanish means not just in post Franco Spain but also in the Spain of the new millennium The reader will find treatments of some of the crucial themes in Spanish culture such as immigration nationalisms and affiliation with the European Union as well as many others of contemporary relevance such as time memory and women studies that defy exclusivist and clear cut single notions of Spanishness These explorations will help contextualize what it means to be Spanish in present day Spain and in the light of globalization while also dissipating stereotypical notions of Spain and Spanishness

Shifting Subjectivities in Contemporary Fiction and Film from Spain Jennifer Brady, Meredith L. Jeffers, 2018-12-14 This collection of essays analyzes shifting notions of self as represented in films and novels written and produced in Spain in the twenty first century In doing so the anthology establishes an international dialogue of multicultural perspectives on trends in contemporary Spain and serves as a useful reference for scholars and students of Spanish literature and cinema The primary avenues of exploration include representations of recovery in post crisis Spain marginalized texts and identities silenced subjectivities intersecting relationships and spaces of desire and control The individual chapters focus on major events such as the global economic crisis the tension between majority and minority cultures within Spain and the ongoing repercussions of past trauma and historical memory In doing so they build upon theories of identity subjectivity gender history memory and normativity

The Dynamics of Masculinity in Contemporary Spanish Culture Lorraine Ryan, Ana Corbalán, 2016-11-03 This collection of essays explores cultural phenomena that are shaping masculine identities in contemporary Spain asking and striving to answer these compelling questions what does it mean to be a man in present day Spain How has masculinity evolved since Franco's dictatorship What are the dynamics of masculinity in contemporary Spanish culture How has hegemonic masculinity been contested in cultural productions This volume is comprised of sixteen essays that address these very questions by examining literary cultural and film representations of the configurations of masculinities in contemporary Spain Divided into three thematic units starting with the undermining of the monolithic Francoist archetype of masculinity continuing with the reformulation of hegemonic masculinity and finishing with regional emergent masculinities all of the volume's essays focus on the redefinition of Spanish masculinities Principal themes of the volume include alternative families queer masculinities performative masculinities memory and resistance to hegemonic discourses of manliness violence and emotions public versus private masculinities regional masculinities and marginal masculinities This exploration not only produces new insights into masculinity but also yields nuanced insights into the recuperation of memory in contemporary Spain the reconfiguration of the family the status of women in Spanish society and regional identities
