Contextualization In The New Testament Patterns For Theology And Mission:

Contextualization in the New Testament Dean Flemming, 2005-10-12 To provide a model for today's missionary efforts Dean Flemming examines how the New Testament authors particularly in Acts Paul's letters and the Gospels contextualized the gospel for particular cultures and or communities

A Handbook of New Testament Exegesis Craig L. Blomberg, Jennifer Foutz Markley, 2010-11 This accessible handbook provides sound guidance on how to study the New Testament in depth offering a step by step approach to the exegetical task

Cultural Integration and the Gospel in Vietnamese Mission Theology KimSon Nguyen, 2019-11-14 Postcolonial Vietnam has an urgent need for contextualized theology of mission God Christ and the church that is rooted in indigenous cultural traditions and the dual Vietnamese spirit of resistance and assimilation Dr KimSon Nguyen navigates the religious cultural dimensions of Vietnamese spirituality and Daoism that have hindered the assimilation of the Christian faith in the Vietnamese context and explores a fresh approach to missiology in Vietnam Dr Nguyen draws upon his deep knowledge of Vietnamese evangelical history to analyze contextualization and mission theology in Vietnam He proposes an evangelical theology of God as a way the centrality of the Vietnamese home as the house of the Lord and ancestor veneration as a theological framework for an indigenous theology of the family Narrowing the gap between culturally removed evangelical missionary practice and widespread syncretistic spirituality in Vietnam Nguyen calls for a paradigm shift in Vietnamese mission theology that is both robustly evangelical and authentically Vietnamese

We Are Catholic Jason Valeriano Hallig, 2016-05-16 What is a church What makes a church a church What is necessary to have a church Is membership in a local church really that important Might a group of people who claim to be Christians become so unlike what a church should be that they should no longer be called a church Why are there so many churches of different traditions What is tradition Are the historical traditions of the church still relevant today These and many others are questions related to the life and purpose of the church which every Christian must wrestle with not only for themselves as disciples of Jesus but also for others to whom they are called to make disciples One of the early confessions of the Christian church centers on the catholicity of the church we believe in the holy Catholic Church It was Ignatius who first used the word catholic and rightly identified the church as the Catholic Church Where Jesus Christ is there is the Catholic Church This book offers a fresh look at this important mark of the church from an evangelical perspective and seeks to elucidate the life being and purpose doing of the church The author believes that catholicity is to the church as the Trinity is to God We are Catholic is a confession of our faith in Christ our commitment to the unity of the church local and universal anchored in the Word and in the Spirit and our passion for the mission to all the nations as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ

Galatians Johannes W. H. van der Bijl, 2024-03-14 This narrative commentary explores Paul's letter to the Galatians by placing it in the larger context of Paul's life and ministry Combining cultural and archeological research Rev Dr Johannes W H van der Bijl draws together details from the book of Acts and the Pauline Epistles to offer us a unique glimpse into the real life issues facing Paul Barnabas and the first century church While centred on the writing of Paul's letter to the church in Galatia the author follows Paul's story and theological development through his early life and conversion to his ministry in Antioch and first missionary journey By presenting Paul as a tangible flesh and blood human readers will better understand the message of Galatians that there is unity and freedom to be had in Christ Insider Jesus William A. Dyrness, 2016-10-02

Missiologists today are considering the significance of insider movements followers of Jesus who are emerging from within Islamic Hindu Buddhist and other cultural contexts Are these authentic expressions of Christian faith If so how should we understand them William Dyrness brings a rare blend of cultural and theological engagement to his reflections on this important phenomenon Ecclesial Identities in a Multi-Faith Context Darren Duerksen, 2015-01-12

When Hindus and Sikhs become followers of Christ what happens next Should they join Christian churches that often look and feel very unfamiliar to them Or to what degree can or should they remain a part of their Hindu Sikh communities and practices Uncomfortable with the answers that were provided to them by Christian leaders in northwest India six followers of Christ began Yeshu satsangs Jesus truth gatherings that sought to follow Christ and the teachings of the Bible while remaining connected to their Hindu and or Sikh communities Ecclesial Identities in a Multi faith Context analyzes the contextualized practices and identities of these leaders and their gatherings situating these in the religious history of the region and the personal histories of the leaders themselves Whereas Christians worry that the Yeshu satsangs and related insider movements are syncretizing their beliefs and are not properly identifiable as churches Ecclesial Identities analyzes the Yeshu satsang's narratives and practices to find vibrant expressions of local church that are grappling with questions and tensions of social and religious identity In addition to its ethnographic approach Ecclesial Identities also utilizes recent sociological and anthropological theory in identity formation and critical realism as well as discussions of biblical ecclesiology from the book of Acts This study will be a helpful resource for those interested in global Christianity the practices and identities of churches in religiously plural environments and the creative ways in which Christ followers can missionally engage people of other faiths Longing for Community David Greenlee, 2013-04-25

Church Immah or Somewhere in Between Understanding the strength and unity of the ummah the worldwide Muslim community and its role in an individual's identity is essential in comprehending the struggles that Muslims undergo as they turn to faith in Jesus Christ It has been a place of security acceptance protection and identity turning away from it entails great sacrifice Where then will Muslims who choose to follow Jesus find their longing for community fulfilled ummah church or somewhere in between Longing for Community compiles the research and reflection of twenty missiologists sociologists anthropologists and linguists among them Muslims who have become believers in Jesus Christ presented at the second Coming to Faith Consultation in February 2010 The contributors explore multiple levels and hybrid nature of social identity pointing to the need to free our discussions from single dimensional scales which are far from adequate to describe the complex nature of conversion and lived out faith

Beyond the issue of identity the contributors offer important lessons from mission history explore liturgy as an appropriate vehicle for teaching discuss appropriate means of communication and point to both the need and contextually appropriate possibilities of greater involvement of women in training and ministry The Beasts, the Graves, and the Ghosts Hann Tzuu Joey Tan, 2020-05-31 At the heart of the gospel is the message of the incarnation God translating himself into the context of human culture and language so we might know him Far from coming to an end with Christ's life on earth this process of contextualization is ongoing reoccurring every time the gospel encounters the particularities of society and culture In this book Hann Tzuu Tan explores the significance of contextualized preaching within the Chinese context Against the backdrop of three major festivals the Spring Festival the Qing Ming Festival and the Hungry Ghost Festival Tan examines the practices of six experienced Chinese preachers in order to demonstrate the theological and practical importance of contextualized preaching As a result of his research Tan suggests six main principles for contextual preaching principles that are rooted within a Chinese context yet applicable to anyone seeking to express the gospel's relevance within a particular cultural setting Combining insights from biblical studies applied theology and ethnography this interdisciplinary study will enrich one's understanding of Chinese culture the gospel and the important and necessary work of contextualization Who Are You, and Who Am I? Hannes Wiher, 2024-12-20 In a globalized world with increasing migration and diaspora we live alongside a growing number of people from different backgrounds and cultures With these multicultural communities how do we live as good neighbours as well as share the love of God with cultural awareness and sensitivity Who Are You and Who Am I provides an in depth approach that makes accessible the knowledge needed for harmonious intercultural relationships evangelism and discipleship Hannes Wiher a renowned missiologist explores the concepts of worldview and identity drawing on communication theory philosophy anthropology theology and missiology to bring the practicalities of both to life and fruitfully apply these to Scripture theology and the church Missiologists missionaries and Christians in multicultural societies alike will find in this work a rich practical and accessible resource
