Contract With The Skin Masochism Performance Art And The 1970s

Alexander Dumbadze, Suzanne Hudson

Contract With The Skin Masochism Performance Art And The 1970s:

Contract With the Skin Kathy O'Dell, Having yourself shot Putting out fires with your bare hands and feet Biting your own body and photographing the marks Sewing your own mouth shut These seemingly aberrant acts were committed by performance artists during the 1970s Why would anyone do these things What do these kinds of masochistic performances tell us about the social and historical context in which they occurred Focusing on 1970s performance artists Vito Acconci Chris Burden Gina Pane and collaborators Marina Abramovic Ulay as well as those with similar sensibilities from the late 1980s onward Bob Flanagan David Wojnarowicz Simon Leung Catherine Opic Ron Athey Lutz Bacher and Robby Garfinkel O Dell provides photographic documentation of performances and quotations from interviews with many of the artists Throughout O Dell asks what we can do about the institutionalized forms of masochism for which these performances are metaphors

The Methuen Drama Companion to Performance Art Bertie Ferdman, Jovana Stokic, 2020-02-20 The Methuen Drama Companion to Performance Art offers a comprehensive guide to the major issues and interdisciplinary debates concerning performance in art contexts that have developed over the last decade It understands performance art as an institutional cultural and economic phenomenon rather than as a label or object Following the ever increasing institutionalization and mainstreaming of performance the book's chapters identify a marked change in the economies and labor practices surrounding performance art and explore how this development is reflective of capitalist approaches to art and event production Embracing what we perceive to be the oxymoronic status of performance art where it is simultaneously precarious and highly profitable the essays in this book map the myriad gestures and radical possibilities of this extreme contradiction This Companion adopts an interdisciplinary perspective to present performance art's legacies and its current practices It brings together specially commissioned essays from leading innovative scholars from a wide range of approaches including art history visual and performance studies dance and theatre scholarship in order to provide a comprehensive and multifocal overview of the emerging research trends and methodologies devoted to performance art

African American Artists Performing for the Camera After 1970 Martyna Ewa Majewska, 2025-03-27 This study demonstrates how African American artists active since the 1970s have instrumentalized performance for the camera to intervene in existing representations of Black and Brown people in America and beyond Majewska argues that producing carefully designed photographs films and videos via performance became a key strategy for dismantling the conceptions of race and gender fixed by US popular culture jurisprudence and pseudoscience Studying the work of Adrian Piper Glenn Ligon Lyle Ashton Harris Senga Nengudi Maren Hassinger Howardena Pindell David Hammons and Pope L this book examines the ways in which these artists incorporate their bodies and personal experience into their respective performances simultaneously courting and foreclosing autobiographical readings The strategies examined here while diverse all challenge conventional interpretations of performance art especially those overdetermined by race gender and sexuality The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history performance studies photography and African American studies The Routledge Companion to Theatre and Performance Paul Allain, Jen Harvie, 2014-08-01 What is theatre What is performance What connects them and how are they different What events people practices and ideas have shaped theatre and performance in the twentieth and twenty first century The Routledge Companion to Theatre and Performance offers some answers to these big questions It provides an analytical informative and engaging introduction to important people companies events concepts and practices that have defined the complementary fields of theatre and performance studies This fully updated second edition contains three easy to use alphabetized sections including over 120 revised entries on topics and people ranging from performance artist Ron Athey to directors Vsevolod Meyerhold and Robert Wilson megamusicals postdramatic theatre and documentation Each entry includes crucial historical and contextual information extensive cross referencing detailed analysis and an annotated bibliography The Routledge Companion to Theatre and Performance is a perfect reference guide for the keen student Out of Touch Maureen F. Curtin, 2013-09-13 Out of Touch investigates how skin has become a crucial but disavowed figure in twentieth century literature theory and cultural criticism These discourses reveal the extent to which skin figures in the cultural effect of changes in visual technologies a development argued by critics to be at the heart of the contest between surface and depth and by extension Western globalization and identity politics The skin has a complex history as a metaphorical terrain over which ideological wars are fought identity is asserted through modification as in tattooing and meaning is inscribed upon the human being Yet even as interventions on the skin characterize much of this history fantasy and science fiction literature and film trumpet skin's passing in the cybernetic age and feminist theory calls for abandoning the skin as a hostile boundary Writing Gender Writing Self Aparna Lanjewar Bose, 2020-05-06 Life Writings Narratives and studies in gender have been posing critical challenges to fetishizing the manner of canon formations and curriculum propriety This book engages with these and other challenges turning our customary gaze towards women especially marginal enabling us to interrogate the established pedagogical practices that accentuates the continuing denial of their agency Reproduction of the cultural modes of narrativization based on memory and experience becomes a mode of reclaiming the agency These challenge the homogenising singularity of communitarian notions besides dominant gender constructs using visual textual popular historical cultural and gender modes enabling one to rethink our received theoretical frameworks This edited volume brings together 21 essays on life writings produced by both well established and emerging writers in the field of literature written by scholars from countries like India Pakistan China USA Iran Yemen and Australia to name just a few Many of the essays in this book focus on how the progress of the self is often impeded by the society it finds itself in With an enlightening foreword by Dr E V Ramakrishnan and a detailed critical introduction by Aparna Lanjewar Bose this anthology is useful for all those who wish to learn more about this genre of writing Art in Consumer Culture Grace McQuilten, 2017-07-05 Written with beautiful clarity Art in Consumer Culture Mis Design asks the contemporary art world to be honest about the pervasive effects of commodification and the difficulty of staging critique The book examines the collusion of art and design in contemporary artistic practices in order to find avenues of critique in a commercially driven cultural landscape Grace McQuilten focuses on the work of Takashi Murakami Andrea Zittel Adam Kalkin and Vito Acconci four contemporary artists who claim to be working in the field of design rather than the traditional art world McQuilten argues that Zittel Acconci and Kalkin engage with design only to reactivate the critical practice of art in a more direct engagement with capital and conceives of and affirms a future for art outside of the art world as a parasite in the complex beast of late capitalism This book is an important and timely provocation to a cynical and apathetic consumer culture and a call to arms for creative freedom and critical thought

Beyond the Happening Catherine Spencer, 2020-06-01 Beyond the Happening uncovers the heterogeneous uniquely interdisciplinary performance based works that emerged in the aftermath of the early Happenings By the mid 1960s Happenings were widely declared outmoded or even dead but this book reveals how many practitioners continued to work with the form during the late 1960s and 1970s developing it into a vehicle for studying interpersonal communication that simultaneously deployed and questioned contemporary sociology and psychology Focussing on the artists Allan Kaprow Marta Minujín Carolee Schneemann and Lea Lublin it charts how they revised and retooled the premises of the Happening within a wider network of dynamic international activity The resulting performances directly intervened in the wider discourse of communication studies as it manifested in the politics of countercultural dropout soft power and cultural diplomacy alternative pedagogies sociological art and feminist consciousness raising

American Literature in Transition, 1970-1980 Kirk Curnutt, 2018-03-22 American Literature in Transition 1970-1980 examines the literary developments of the twentieth century's gaudiest decade For a quarter century filmmakers musicians and historians have returned to the era to explore the legacy of Watergate stagflation and Saturday Night Fever uncovering the unique confluence of political and economic phenomena that make the period such a baffling time Literary historians have never shown much interest in the era however a remarkable omission considering writers as diverse as Toni Morrison Thomas Pynchon Marilyn French Adrienne Rich Gay Talese Norman Mailer Alice Walker and Octavia E Butler were active Over the course of twenty one essays contributors explore a range of controversial themes these writers tackled from 1960s nostalgia to feminism and the redefinition of masculinity to sexual liberation and rock n roll Other essays address New Journalism the rise of blockbuster culture memoir and self help and crime fiction all demonstrating that the Me Decade was nothing short of mesmerizing
